PREFACE

The successful ending of two years of copyright litigation in which this directory has been involved, came to us with a High Court decision in November, 1912.

In spite of a handicap of a decision which was given against us in the early stages, our business nevertheless during that time increased by more than one hundred per cent., placing us well in the leading position.

It will be our endeavour to continue to merit this place by continually increasing the efficiency of the book and the reliability of the information given; to this end we have organized an information department contributed to by some two hundred correspondents, covering Canada from coast to coast. It is not possible to publish a work of this nature without errors, but in endeavoring to eliminate them we have spared neither time nor expense.

We call special attention to the contents pages, where a number of new features will be found listed, including a Complete Alphabetical List of Lawyers practising in Canada, referring to the place in which each is practising, and some useful information regarding Fees for Land Registration in the West.

BOUNDARIES OF THE JUDICIAL DISTRICTS.

Judicial District of Athabasca. That portion of Alberta lying north and west of the North Saskatchewan River, and north of line forming north boundary of Judicial District of Wetaskiwin, except the City of Edmonton.

Judicial District of Calgary. Bounded on the north by the line between Townships 34 and 35; on the east by the eastern boundary of the Province; on the south by the northern boundaries of the Judicial Districts of Macleod and Lethbridge; on the west by the western boundary of the Province.

Judicial District of Edmonton. Bounded on the north by North Saskatchewan River, south by Judicial District of Wetaskiwin, east by western boundary of Saskatchewan, west by North Saskatchewan River, including the City of Edmonton.

Judicial District of Lethbridge. On the east by the eastern boundary of the Province; on the south by the southern boundary of the Province; and on the north and west as follows:—Commencing at the point where the eastern boundary of the Province is intersected by the third base line in the Dominion lands system of survey, which is the line between Townships 8 and 9, thence westerly along the said line between Townships 8 and 9 to its intersection with the line between Ranges 10 and 11 west of the Fourth Meridian, thence northerly following the said line between Ranges 10 and 11 to its intersection with the fifth base line in the Dominion lands system of survey, which is the line between Townships 16 and 17, thence westerly following the said base line to its intersection with the line between Ranges 22 and 23 west of the Fourth Meridian, thence southerly along the said line between Ranges 22 and 23 to the Belly River, thence along the Belly River down stream to the St. Mary River, thence southerly and westerly following the west bank of the St. Mary River to its intersection with the south boundary of the Blood Indian Reserve, thence westerly following the south boundary of the said Reserve to its intersection with the line between Ranges 27 and 28 west of the Fourth Meridian, thence southerly along the line between the said Ranges 27 and 28 to its intersection with the southern boundary of the Province of Alberta.

Judicial District of Macleod. Bounded on the north by the fifth base line in the Dominion Lands System of survey, which is the line between Townships 16 and 17; on the east by the Judicial District of Lethbridge; on the south by the International Boundary Line; on the west by the western boundary of the Province.

Judicial District of Wetaskiwin. Bounded on the north by the Section line which bounds on the north the most southerly two-thirds of Township 47; on the east by the eastern boundary of the Province; on the south by the Judicial District of Calgary; on the west by the western boundary of the Province.

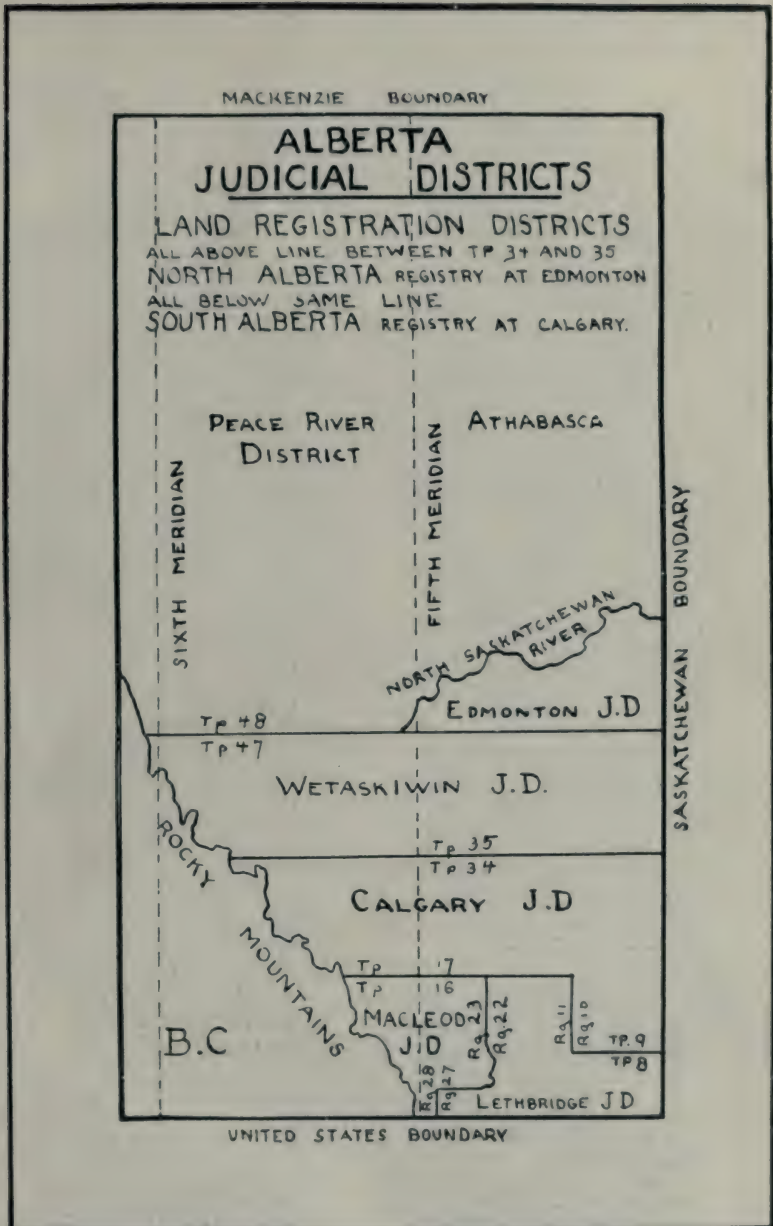

The Districts of the respective District Courts are the same as the above Judicial Districts.

LAND REGISTRATION DISTRICTS.

There are two Land Registration Districts; that of North Alberta and that of South Alberta; the Ninth Correction line (being the line between Townships 34 and 35) is the boundary between them.

North Alberta:
Registry at Edmonton.

South Alberta:
Registry at Calgary.

TORONTO.

The Law of Intestate Succession in Ontario

The law of intestate succession is governed by R.S.O., Chapter 127, Sections 22 to 58, both inclusive, and 10 Edward VII., Chapter 56.

By these Acts all real and personal property vested in any person without the right of survivorship in any other person, devolves at his death and becomes vested in his personal representative from time to time as trustee for the persons by law beneficially entitled, and subject to the payment of debts or some prior effectual disposition, the property is administered and distributed in like manner as personal property is disposed of.

Nothing in these Acts takes away a widow's right to dower; but a widow may by deed or instrument in writing, attested by at least one witness elect to take her interest in her husband's undisposed of real property in lieu of all claim to dower in respect of the real property of which her husband was at any time seized, or to which, at the time of his death, he was beneficially entitled; and unless she so elects she shall not be entitled to share in the undisposed-of real property. The personal representative of the deceased may by a notice in writing require her to make her election, and if she fails to execute and deliver a deed or instrument of election to him within six months after service of notice she shall be deemed to have elected to take her dower.

A husband, who, if these Acts had not been passed, would be entitled to an interest as tenant by the curtesy in real property of his wife, may by deed or instrument in writing executed, and attested by at least one witness and delivered to the personal representative, if any, or if there is none, deposited in the office of the Surrogate Clerk at Toronto within six months after his wife's death elect to take such interest in the real and personal property of his wife as he would have taken had these Acts not been passed, in which case the husband's interest therein shall be ascertained in all respects as if these acts had not been passed, and he shall be entitled to no further interest thereunder.

TABLE SHOWING DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY, REAL AND PERSONAL OF INTESTATES IN ONTARIO.

I. AN UNMARRIED MAN OR WOMAN.

The property, both real and personal, descends as follows:—

- (a) To father, mother, brothers and sisters, in equal portions.
- (b) Children of a deceased brother or sister take the share which the deceased parent would have taken if living.
- (c) If no father, mother, brother or sister, then to the next of kin in equal degree.

II. A WIDOW OR WIDOWER WITH ISSUE.

- (a) If he or she leaves only one child everything goes to that child.
- (b) If he or she leaves more than one child, then the estate is divided equally between such children, and in case there be a child or children of a deceased child or children, such child or children of a deceased child or children will take in equal portions the share which the deceased parent would have taken if living.

(c) If he or she leaves no children living, but there are children of any deceased child or children, the issue of the respective deceased child or children will take among them in equal portions the share which would have gone to their parent if living.

III. A MARRIED MAN WITHOUT ISSUE.

(a) Where the net value of real and personal estate does not exceed $1,000, it goes to his widow absolutely and exclusively.

(b) Where the net value of the real and personal estate exceeds $1,000, the widow is entitled to $1,000 part thereof absolutely and exclusively, and has a charge thereon for such sum at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum from date of death until payment, and she is also entitled to one half of the residue left after deducting the said $1,000 and interest, absolutely and exclusively; and the rest goes to next of kin in equal degree to the intestate; provided, however, that the widow may elect whether she will take dower or a distributive share in her husband's real estate.

IV. A MARRIED WOMAN WITHOUT ISSUE.

One-half of the real and personal estate belongs to her husband absolutely, and the residue will descend according to rules in Division I. The husband, however, may elect to take his curtesy in his wife's real estate instead of his distributive share thereof.

V. A MARRIED MAN WITH ISSUE.

One-third of his real and personal estate will go to his widow absolutely, and the residue will go to his child, if only one; if more than one, in equal portions amongst his children, and such persons as legally represent such children. Provided, however, that his widow may elect to take her dower instead of a distributive share in her husband's estate.

VI. A MARRIED WOMAN WITH ISSUE.

Same as descent of property of a married man with issue, except that the proviso is that the husband may elect to take his curtesy instead of a distributive share of the real and personal estate of the intestate.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The principle of Representation is carried throughout the whole line of direct issue. For instance, if a parent be dead, then the child or children take the share that would have fallen to the parent.

If a person die leaving no will and leaving no widow or widower and no kindred the estate escheats to the Crown.

The debts of a deceased person take priority over everything and must be paid out of the estate before the heirs can participate. Kindred of the half blood inherit equally with those of the whole blood in same degree.

Posthumous children have the same rights as other children in the distribution of intestates' estates.

An illegitimate child or relative shall not share under any provisions of these Acts, and a person born out of matrimony shall not become legitimate by subsequent marriage of his parents.

NOTARIES IN THE PROVINCE OF QUEBEC

In the Province of Quebec, as in France, Notaries Public constitute a distinct profession incompatible with certain other professions, and particularly that of an advocate, barrister or solicitor. Notaries who become advocates can no longer practice the profession of a notary.

Notaries are public officers whose chief duty is to draw up and execute deeds and contracts to which the parties are bound or desire to give the character of authenticity attached to acts entered into under public authority, to assure the date thereof, to have and preserve the same in safe-keeping, and to deliver copies or extracts therefrom.

Notaries are appointed for life with concurrent jurisdiction throughout the Province.

Among the chief duties of a notary are the following:—To have a suitable place for his office, and to keep the originals of deeds and other documents passed before him, his repertoires and indexes in a proper state of preservation and in the form prescribed by law.

To keep secret the confidences made to him professionally.

To observe in the practice of his profession the rules of the most scrupulous honesty and impartiality.

The Notaries of the Province of Quebec are represented and governed by "The Board of Notaries," a body politic possessing full power to amend the tariffs, rules and regulations for the full management of the matters regarding the profession, and to impose penalties for infringement of its by-laws. It has the power to maintain discipline among Notaries. British subjects only, of the male sex, are admitted to study the Notarial profession after examination.

In order to protect the public, the Board may, of its own accord, order the inspection of one or all notarial records.

The Board may suspend or remove any Notary found guilty of a serious breach of his professional duties.

EGERTON R. CASE

Address Dept. M. Temple Building, TORONTO.

F. M. Chart. Inst. P. A. Lond., Registered U. S. Patent Attorney, Notary Public for Ontario, Commissioner for Quebec. Specialist in Procuring Canadian and Foreign Patents which give complete Legal Protection to Inventions.

EXPERT ASSISTANCE GIVEN THE LEGAL PROFESSION IN INFRINGEMENT SUITS.

Members of the Legal Profession will find it to their advantage to place all their Patent business in my hands, as my facilities are unexcelled in preparing and prosecuting Patent applications, particular attention being given to the thorough protection of the invention.

N.B.—Mr. Case is the author of two copyright books "Pointers for Inventors" and "Pointers for Patentees," sold at the modest price of 25 cents each, so as to make them within the reach of all. The first book sets forth the methods successfully employed by inventors to raise money to patent their inventions, and the second book sets forth the methods successfully employed by patentees in either selling, or manufacturing, under their patents. The books in question are full of information valuable to patentees, and inventors and manufacturers.

SYNOPSIS OF THE CANADIAN PATENT LAW

Compiled expressly for the "Canada Legal Directory" by John E. Cameron, of Smith and Cameron, Patent Solicitors, Toronto.

Revised to January 1st, 1913.

An Act respecting Patents of Invention, amended up to chap. 25, 60-61 Victoria, 1897.

This Act may be cited as "The Patent Act," 35 Victoria, chap. 26, sec. 53.

Who may Obtain Patents—Any person who has an invention that was not known or used by any other person before his invention thereof, and which has not been in public use or on sale, with the consent or allowance of the inventor, for more than one year before making an application for a patent therefor in Canada.

What is not Patentable—Any invention with illicit objects, or mere scientific principle or abstract theorems.

Refusal to Grant Patents—The Commissioner may object to grant a patent in any of the following cases:—

(a) When he is of opinion that the alleged invention is not patentable in law;

(b) When it appears to him that the invention is already in the possession of the public, with the consent or allowance of the inventor;

(c) When it appears to him that there is no novelty in the invention;

(d) When it appears to him that the invention has been described in a book or other printed publication before the date of the application, or is otherwise in the possession of the public;

(e) When it appears to him that the invention has already been patented in Canada, unless the Commissioner has doubts as to whether the patentee or the applicant is the first inventor;

(f) When it appears to him that the invention has already been patented in a foreign country, and the year has expired within which the foreign patentee may apply for a patent in Canada, unless the Commissioner has doubts as to whether the foreign patentee or the applicant is the first inventor. R.S., c. 61, s. 16.

An inventor may apply for a patent in a foreign country prior to making application in Canada, but must make application in Canada within 12 months from the issue of the first foreign patent, to obtain a valid patent.

The Act uses the words "any person." The inventor may be a British subject or alien. Minors and married women may be inventors.

Joint Inventors must make joint application.

Assignees, by assignment of record before the issue of a patent, may become patentees.

If the inventor dies before application, the heirs may apply instead. When the inventor dies between the application and the issue, the patent is granted to the personal representative or assignees.

Life of a Patent—The full term is eighteen years. The patent may be granted for a partial term of six years, and be renewed for like term on payment of the renewal fee during current term.

Conditions—(a) The patent may become void if, after two years or any extension granted thereto, the owner fails to manufacture the invention in Canada.

(b) The patent may become void if the owner imports the invention after one year, or any extension granted thereto.

The Commissioner may grant an extension to the terms fixed for working and importation.

Amendments after issue: (a) Disclaimer; (b) Re-issue; (c) Judgment pro tanto.

Disclaimer—Patentee may strike out of his claim any part not patentable in law, by a disclaimer filed at the Patent Office in duplicate.

Re-issue—When there is "insufficient description or specification, or too broad claims," an amended specification may be filed, and upon surrender of the original patent, a new patent for the same invention may be issued.

Judgment Pro Tanto—When a patent is attacked before the Courts, the Court may, in rendering judgment, amend the patent, and copies of the judgment must be filed in the Patent Office, and attached to the patent by the patentee.

Infringement—Every person who, without the consent in writing of the patentee, makes, constructs, or puts in practice, or procures from any person not authorized by the patentee to make or use, and who uses the invention patented, shall be liable in damages.

Action for Infringement may be taken either in local Courts or in the Exchequer Court; the latter has jurisdiction over the whole Dominion.

Injunction—The party taking action for infringement of a patent may apply for an injunction to restrain the opposing party from using, making, or selling the subject matter of the patent, or to render account while action is pending.

Defence—The defendant may plead invalidity of a patent by specific fact, or default.

Validity—Partial invalidity of a patent will not affect infringement of valid portion.

Impeachment of Patent—"Scire Facias"—A certified copy of the patent and application documents is filed in Court, and a writ of scire facias, issued to repeal the patent for cause, to be shown in the proceeding thereunder.

A certificate of judgment voiding the patent is to be filed in the Patent Office.

Marking—Patent devices must be marked with the word "Patented," with the year of the issue. Penalty for failure to mark—fine under $100 or imprisonment not exceeding two months.

False Marking—It is a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of not more than $200 or imprisonment not exceeding three months.

Government may use Patented Invention—The Government of Canada may, at any time, use any patented invention, paying to the patentee such sum as the Commissioner reports to be reasonable compensation for the use thereof. R.S., c. 61, s. 44.

As to Use of Patented Invention in Foreign Vessels—No patent shall extend to prevent the use of any invention in any foreign ship or vessel, if such invention is not so used for the manufacture of any goods to be vended within or exported from Canada. R.S., c. 61, s. 45.

Patent not to Effect Previous Purchaser—Every person who, before the issuing of a patent, has purchased, constructed or acquired any invention for which a patent is afterwards obtained under this Act, shall have the right of using and vending to others the specific article, machine, manufacture or composition of matter patented and so purchased, constructed or acquired before the issue of the patent therefor, without being liable to the patentee or his legal representatives for so doing; but the patent shall not, as regards other persons, be held invalid by reason of such purchase, construction or acquisition or use of the invention, by the person first aforesaid or by those to whom he has sold the same, unless the same was purchased, constructed, acquired or used, with the consent or allowance of the inventor thereof, for a longer period than one year before the application for a patent therefor, thereby making the invention one which has become public and in public use. R.S., c. 61, s. 46.

Arbitration in Case of Conflicting Applications—In case of conflicting applications for any patent, the matter shall be submitted to an arbitration of three skilled persons, two of whom shall be chosen by the applicants, one by each, the third to be chosen by the Commissioner; and their finding shall be delivered to the Commissioner in writing, which shall be final as to the granting of the patent.

Failure to Appoint Arbitrators—If either of the applicants refuse or fail to appoint an arbitrator, and there be two applicants, the patent shall issue to the opposing applicant.

In certain cases Commissioner may appoint.

If there are more than two conflicting applications, and the persons applying do not unite in appointing three arbitrators, the Commissioner or Deputy may appoint three arbitrators.

Arbitrators to be sworn.

The arbitrators so named shall subscribe and take, before a Judge of any Court of record in Canada, an oath in the form laid down by statute.

Powers of Arbitrators—The arbitrators may summon before them any person they may require to give evidence, and to produce such documents or things as they may deem requisite to a full investigation of the matter; and may compel them to give evidence, as is vested in any Court of Justice in civil cases, but no such witness shall be compelled to answer any question which might render himself liable to a criminal prosecution.

The fees for the services of all arbitrators shall be a matter of agreement, and shall be paid by the applicants who named them, respectively; the arbitrators named by the Commissioner shall be paid by the applicants jointly.

Caveats—Intending applicants for a patent may file a caveat.

An intending applicant for a patent, who has not perfected his invention, and is in fear of being despoiled of his idea, may file in the Patent Office a description of his invention, with or without drawings, together with the statutory fee, and the said documents shall be preserved in secrecy, with the exception of delivering copies of the same whenever required by the applicant, or by any judicial tribunal, but the secrecy shall cease when the applicant obtains a patent for said invention.

If application be made for a patent by any other person, for an invention with which such caveat may in any respect interfere, the Commissioner shall at once give notice by mail, of such application, and the person who has filed the caveat shall, within three months from date of notice, file a petition and take other steps necessary for an application for a patent; and if in the opinion of the Commissioner, the applications are conflicting, like proceedings may be had in such respect as are provided by the Act, with conflicting applications.

Duration of a Caveat—The caveat will expire and simply remain as a matter of proof as to novelty or priority of invention, unless application be made for a patent of invention within one year See 3 Edw. VII. ch. 46, and R. S. C. c. 61, s. 8.

Improvements—Any person who has invented any improvement on any patented invention, may obtain a patent for such improvement; but he shall not thereby obtain the right of vending or using the original invention, nor shall the patent for the original invention confer the right of vending or using the patented improvement. R.S., c. 61, s. 9.

Compulsory Licenses—An applicant when applying for a patent, or at any time within six months after the issue of a patent, may order such patent to be issued, subject to the following conditions, instead of subject to the manufacturing and importation clauses of the Act:—

(a) That any person, while the patent continues in force, may by petition apply to the Commissioner for the privilege of manufacturing and using the patent;

(b) The Commissioner may make an order granting the right to manufacture and use the invention to the petitioner for reason that the public have not been satisfied.

(c) The Commissioner may fix the amounts for royalties and the terms for payments to the patentee under such license.

(d) The Commissioner may call in the aid of specially qualified assessors, in fixing the amount for royalties, when either party to the license becomes dissatisfied.

(e) The Commissioner may grant any number of licenses against the patent.

(f) The patent and all the rights and privileges granted to the patentee shall cease, and the patent shall be declared null and void if at any time within three months after the Commissioner has granted a license or licenses against the patent to use the patent to others, that the patentee refuses to comply with the conditions stated in said license or licenses.

INDUSTRIAL DESIGNS.

An Act respecting Trade Marks and Industrial Designs.

This Act may be cited as The Trade Mark and Design Act, R.S., chap. 65, s. 1.

Application—Application shall be made to the Minister of Agriculture (Trade-mark and Copyright Branch), Ottawa, Ontario.

Who shall be deemed Proprietors—The author of any design shall be considered the proprietor thereof unless he has executed the design for a good and valuable consideration.

Duration of Industrial Design—The exclusive right to an Industrial Design is for a term of five years, renewable, before expiration of first term, for a further term of five years, but not to exceed ten years in all.

Assignable—Every industrial design is assignable in law, in whole or any undividing interest thereof; or the use of said industrial design may be conveyed to others, by a license, registered at the office of the Minister of Agriculture.

Protection—An industrial design should be registered before publication to insure protection.

Marking Industrial Designs—The proprietor of an industrial design should mark his design "Rd." and year of registration, together with his name.

Offences—Every person using or imitating a registered design, without a license from the proprietor, publishes, sells or exposes for sale, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred and twenty dollars, and not less than twenty dollars, to the proprietor, and such sum shall be recoverable with costs on summary conviction under Part XV. of the Criminal Code. R.S., c. 63, s. 31.

Falsely Marking—Every person placing the word "Registered" or the letters "Rd." upon an article for which no design has been registered, or upon an article upon which the registered right has expired; or who publishes, sells, or offers for sale, any article knowing it to be fraudulently marked, shall, for each offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding thirty dollars, and not less than four dollars, by a summary conviction under Part XV. of the Criminal Code. R.S., c. 63, s. 31.

Limitation of Actions—All suits under this Act shall be brought within twelve months from cause of action.

The Dominion Association of Chartered Accountants is composed of the members in good standing of the above named Provincial Institutes of Chartered Accountants resident in Canada, membership being obtainable only through the said Provincial Institutes. The Council is elected annually, each Institute electing representatives, not in any event exceeding three, in proportion to the number of its total membership. The Presidency of the Association is held in rotation by a representative of each of the Societies in the order above named, and the Vice-Presidency is held by a representative of the Society next in order of rotation. The Secretary-Treasurer is appointed from the membership of the Society electing the President.

The objects of the Association are set out in the by-laws as follows:—

- (a) To secure the incorporation of Provincial Societies in Provinces of the Dominion where none now exist;
- (b) To assist Provincial Societies in securing uniform legislation for the better protection and regulation of local professional interests;
- (c) To secure the adoption by Provincial Societies of uniform standards of examination and membership;
- (d) To arrange for reciprocal privileges between Provincial Societies for the benefit of their members;
- (e) To consider questions of ethics;
- (f) To secure harmony of action in all matters affecting the common interest, and generally to act in an advisory capacity to the Provincial Societies.

The annual meeting is held in the month of September of each year.

SYNOPSIS OF THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCES

ALBERTA

SYNOPSIS OF LAWS.

Compiled expressly for the "Canada Legal Directory" by Emery, Newell, Ford, Bolton & Mount, Barristers, Edmonton, of the Alberta Bar.

Revised to November 28, 1912.

By the North-west Territories Act of the Dominion of Canada, and subject to the provisions of the said Act, the laws of England relating to civil and criminal matters "as the same existed on the 15th day of July, 1870, shall be in force in the Territories, in so far as the same are applicable to the Territories and in so far as the same have not been or are not hereafter repealed, altered, varied, modified or affected by any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom applicable to the Territories, or of the Parliament of Canada, or by any Ordinance of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council or of the Legislative Assembly."

The same Act also provides that "All laws and ordinances in force in the Territories, and not repealed by or inconsistent with this Act, shall remain in force until it is otherwise ordered by the Parliament of Canada, by the Governor in Council, or by the Legislative Assembly under the authority of this Act."

And by 4-5 Edward VII., Chapter 3, being, "An Act to establish and provide for the Government of the Province of Alberta" known as "The Alberta Act," it is provided (Section 16) that "All laws and all orders and regulations made thereunder, so far as they are not inconsistent with anything contained in this Act, or as to which this Act contains no provision intended as a substitute therefor, and all Courts of civil and criminal jurisdiction, and all commissions, powers, authorities and functions, and all officers and functionaries, judicial, administrative and ministerial, existing immediately before the coming into force of this Act in the Territory hereby established as the Province of Alberta, shall continue in the said Province as if this Act and The Saskatchewan Act had not been passed; subject, nevertheless, except with respect to such as are enacted by or existing under Acts of the Parliament of Great Britain or of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be repealed, abolished or altered by the Parliament of Canada, or by the Legislature of the said Province, according to the authority of the Parliament or of the said Legislature....."

Assignments—"The Assignments Act" provides for the appointment of an official assignee in each judicial district. Every assignment for the general benefit of creditors not made to him is void, unless made to some other person resident in the Province, with the consent (in writing or by telegram written or sent prior to the date of assignment) of a majority of creditors having claims of $100.00 and upwards (such majority being computed according to a scale of votes given according to the amount of claim). An assignment for the general benefit of creditors takes precedence to all attachments of debts by way of garnishment where the money has not been actually paid over to the garnishing creditor, as well as of all other attachments and of all judgments, and of all executions not completely executed by payment, subject to the lien, if any, of execution or attaching creditors for their costs.

The assignment, with affidavit of execution, must be registered within 10 days in the office of the clerk of the registration district for chattel mortgages, and within 15 days in the Land Titles Office for the land registration district in which any land vested by the Act in the assignee is situated. Notice of the assignment must be published in the "Alberta Gazette." Omission to publish or register does not invalidate the assignment.

Claims for wages or salary to an extent not exceeding three months (and for arrears only and not for any unearned portion) have preference.

Creditors must value securities held by them, and the assignee, under the authority of the creditors, may either consent to the right of the creditor to rank for the claim, after deducting such valuation, or he may require from the creditor an assignment of the security at an advance of 10 per cent. upon the specified value to be paid out of the estate; and in such case the difference between the value, at which the security is retained, and the amount of the gross claim of the creditor shall be the amount for which he shall rank and vote in respect of the estate.

The Act has full and detailed provisions to protect creditors against fraudulent or preferential transfers. Transfers made by a debtor insolvent, or on the eve of insolvency, which have the effect of defeating or giving preference over creditors are void as against such creditors if attacked, or if an assignment is made for the benefit of creditors, within 60 days thereafter.

Attachment—1. Of debts. Any plaintiff in an action for a debt or liquidated demand before or after judgment, and any person who has obtained a judgment or order for the recovery or payment of money, may issue a garnishee summons upon filing an affidavit, made by the plaintiff (or judgment creditor), his solicitor or agent, showing the nature and amount of the claim or judgment, and swearing positively to the indebtedness and stating to the best of the deponent's information and belief that the proposed garnishee (naming him) is indebted to the defendant or judgment debtor. Service of the summons on the garnishee binds any debt due or accruing due. A copy of the garnishee summons must be served on the defendant (or judgment debtor), or his solicitor, within 20 days after service on the garnishee, or such further time as the Judge ex parte may order. No money paid into Court pursuant to a garnishee summons may be paid out without the written consent of the parties interested except by order of the Court. No debt due or accruing due to a mechanic, workman, labourer, servant, clerk or employee for or in respect of his wages or salary is liable to seizure or attachment, unless the said debt exceeds $25.00, and then only to the extent of the excess. This exemption does not apply where the debt sued for, or the judgment recovered, is for board and lodging. The moneys attached are, by the Creditors Relief Act (see below), made payable ratably to all creditors establishing their claim against the debtor within the times limited by the said Act.

2. Of personal property. After the commencement of any suit wherein the claim is for the recovery of a debt of $50.00 or upwards, upon affidavit made by the plaintiff or one of several plaintiffs, if more than one, his or their agent having a personal knowledge of the matter, stating clearly and succinctly from what cause such debt arose and the amount thereof, and that he has good reason to believe (giving reason therefor) that the defendant

(a) Is about to abscond, or has absconded, from the Province leaving personal property in any judicial district thereof liable to seizure under execution for debt; or

(b) Has attempted to remove such personal property out of the Province, or to sell or dispose of the same with intent to defraud his creditors generally, or the plaintiff in particular; or

(c) Keep concealed to avoid service of process; and

(d) In either case that the deponent verily believes that without the benefit of the attachment the plaintiff will lose his debt or sustain damage; and upon a further affidavit of one other credible person that he is well acquainted with the defendant and has good reason to believe (giving such reasons) that the defendant is about to abscond, or has absconded, or has attempted to remove his personal property out of the Province, or to sell or dispose of the same, or keeps concealed with intent as aforesaid, as the case may be, the Judge being satisfied with the reasons aforesaid, on application to him ex parte may direct the issue of a writ of attachment against the defendant's personal property. Where the debtor has absconded, or is about to abscond from the Province leaving no wife or family behind, none of his property is exempt from seizure. Provision is made for giving a defendant as full and prompt notice as possible, and for the return of the goods to him upon his furnishing security, and for subsequent proceedings including an application to have the writ of attachment set aside by a Judge, supported by evidence by affidavit that the creditor, who sued out such writ, had not reasonable cause for taking such proceedings.

Bills of Sale and Chattel Mortgages—Bills of sale and chattel mortgages, not accompanied by an immediate delivery and actual and continued change of possession, must be registered within 30 days from execution, together with an affidavit of execution and also an affidavit of bona fides (to the effect provided by the Act) made by the mortgagee (or such other person as is under certain circumstances specified by the Act). Failure to register within the said time (or to renew as hereinafter mentioned), or in case the consideration is not truly expressed in the mortgage or conveyance, the same is null and void as against the creditors of the mortgagor and against subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith for valuable consideration. Registrations must be made in the registration district where the property is situated, and such registration is effective only in that district. The mortgagor is forbidden to remove the goods to any district without notice to the mortgagee. In case of removal to any district, a certified copy of the mortgage and other documents filed relating thereto must be filed in the district to which the goods are removed within three weeks from removal, otherwise the goods are liable to seizure and sale under execution and the mortgage is null and void as against subsequent purchasers and mortgagees in good faith for valuable consideration as if never executed. Mortgages must be renewed (by renewal statement showing amount due, etc., for which a form is provided by the Act) within 30 days next preceding the expiration of two years from filing, and again within 30 days next preceding one year from renewal, and so on thereafter from year to year. No security taken binding any growing crop, or crop to be grown in future in whole or in part, is valid unless for the purchase price and interest thereon of seed grain. There are special provisions in regard to seed grain mortgages.

Commissions on Sales of Land—No action shall be brought whereby to charge any person, either by commission or otherwise, for services rendered in connection with the sale of any land, tenements or hereditaments, or any interest therein, unless the contract upon which recovery is sought in such action, or some note or memorandum thereof is in writing, signed by the party sought to be charged or by his agent thereunto lawfully authorised in writing.

Companies—The companies ordinance is modelled largely after the English Companies Act. A company may become incorporated (provided the requirements as to the scope of its objects, the fees payable, etc., are complied with) on filing with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies a memorandum of association signed by three or more persons.

Companies Winding Up—The Alberta winding-up ordinance provides for the voluntary winding up of a company incorporated by or under any Statute of the Province.

Proceedings for winding up begun by creditors by reason of the insolvency of a company must be begun under the Dominion Winding-up Act.

Compensation to the Families of Persons Killed by Accidents—Whenever the death of a person has been caused by such wrongful act, neglect or default as would (if death had not ensued) have entitled the party injured to damages, an action to recover damages may be brought in the name of the executor or administrator for the benefit of the wife, husband, parent, child, brother or sister of the deceased, and the Court may give damages proportionated to the injury to the parties for whose benefit the action is brought. Not more than one action lies in respect of the same subject matter of complaint, and it must be commenced within twelve months after the death.

Conditional Sales of Goods—Whenever, on a sale or bailment of goods of the value of $15.00 or over, it is agreed, provided or conditioned that the right of property, or right of possession in whole or in part, shall remain in the seller or bailor notwithstanding that the actual possession of the goods passes to the buyer or bailee, the seller or bailor cannot set up any such right of property or right of possession as against any purchaser or mortgagee of or from the buyer or bailee of such goods in good faith for valuable consideration, or as against judgments, executions or attachments against the purchaser or bailee, unless such sale or bailment with such agreement, proviso or condition is in writing (which writing must describe the goods so that they may be readily known and distinguished), signed by the bailee or his agent, and registered in the office of the registration clerk for chattel mortgages in the registration district within which the buyer or bailee resides, within thirty days from the time of the actual delivery of the goods to the bailee or buyer; and in the event of the goods being delivered in a registration district other than that in which the buyer or bailee resides at the time of such delivery, registration must be made within 30 days from the time of the actual delivery of the goods in the registration district in which the goods are delivered. If the goods, after delivery, are removed into another registration district, further registration is required in the latter district within 60 days after removal. The documents registered must be accompanied by an affidavit of bona fides made by the seller or bailor, or his agent.

The above provisions do not apply in cases of conditional sales or bailments of incorporated companies to railway companies, if a contract evidencing the conditional sale or bailment, or a copy thereof, certified under the hand of the President or Vice-President and Secretary of the company and verified by an affidavit of the Secretary thereof attached or endorsed thereon and having the corporate seal attached thereto, is filed with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies within thirty days from the execution thereof.

Creditors Relief—The Creditors Relief Act, passed in December, 1910, aims to prevent priority among execution creditors. The Act makes provision for moneys attached as well as moneys levied under execution being paid ratably to creditors who place executions in the hands of the Sheriff within specified times. Elaborate provisions are made for notices, distributions, contesting claims, interpleader, priority claims, etc.

Decedents' Estates—An official known as the Public Administrator is appointed within each judicial district, whose duty it is to take the necessary and proper steps to administer the estates of deceased persons for which administration is not applied for within a specified time. The Public Administrator is also the official guardian and is frequently appointed to act on behalf of infants interested where estate matters are before the Court.

Devolution of Estates—The property of any man dying intestate and leaving a widow but no issue, belongs to such widow absolutely and exclusively, provided that prior to his death such widow had not left him and lived in adultery after leaving him.

The mother of any person dying intestate without a wife, child or father, is entitled to the whole of the property.

In the distribution of personal property of any woman dying intestate, her illegitimate children shall be entitled to the same rights as if they were legitimate.

The mother is entitled to the personal property of an illegitimate child who dies intestate.

Land in the Province goes to the personal representatives of the deceased owner thereof and shall be dealt with and distributed as personal estate.

Dower and tenancy by the curtesy are both abolished. A widow has the same right in the land of her deceased husband as if it were personal property. A husband has the same right in the land of his deceased wife as the wife has in the personal property of her deceased husband.

If a wife has left her husband and has lived in adultery after leaving him, she takes no part of his land. If a husband has left his wife and has lived in adultery after leaving her, he takes no part of her land.

Illegitimate children inherit from the mother as if they were legitimate, and through the mother, if dead, any land which she would, if living, have taken by purchase, gift, devise or descent from any other person.

When an illegitimate child dies intestate without issue, the mother of such child shall inherit any lands which the said child was the owner of at the time of his death.

By the Married Women's Relief Act, Chapter 18, of the Statutes of Alberta, 1910 (second session), the widow of a man who dies leaving a will by the terms of which his said widow would, in the opinion of the judge before whom the application is made, receive less than if he had died intestate, may apply to the Supreme Court for relief. Such application must be made within six months after the death of her husband.

Execution—Execution may issue at any time within six years after judgment and later upon the order of a Judge. It loses its priority according to the time of its original delivery unless renewed within two years, and must again be renewed within two years from last renewal, etc. (See also under "Assignment" and "Creditors Relief.")

Exemptions—The following real and personal property of an execution debtor and his family is free from seizure by virtue of all writs of execution, namely:—

1. The necessary and ordinary clothing of himself and his family;
2. Furniture, household furnishings, dairy utensils, swine and poultry to the extent of five hundred dollars;
3. The necessary food for the family of the execution debtor during six months, which may include grain and flour, or vegetables, and meat either prepared for use or on foot;
4. Three oxen, horses or mules or any three of them, six cows, six sheep, three pigs, and fifty domestic fowls besides the animals the execution debtor may have chosen to keep for food purposes, and food for the same for the months of November, December, January, February, March and April, or for such of these months or portions thereof as may follow the date of seizure, provided such seizure be made between the first day of August and the thirtieth day of April next ensuing;
5. The harness necessary for three animals, one waggon or two carts, one mower or cradle and scythe, one breaking plough, one cross plough, one set of harrows, one horse rake, one sewing machine, one reaper or binder, one set of sleighs and one seed drill;
6. The books of a professional man;
7. The tools and necessary implements to the extent of two hundred dollars, used by the execution debtor in the practice of his trade or profession;
8. Seed grain sufficient to seed all his land under cultivation not exceeding eighty acres, at the rate of two bushels per acre, defendant to have choice of seed, and fourteen bushels of potatoes;
9. The homestead, provided the same be not more than one hundred and sixty acres; in case it be more the surplus may be sold subject to any lien or incumbrance thereon;
10. The house and buildings occupied by the execution debtors, and also the lot or lots on which the same are situate according to the registered plan of the same, to the extent of fifteen hundred dollars.

The execution debtor is entitled to a choice from the greater quantity of the same kind of articles which are exempt from seizure. No article, the price of which forms the subject matter of the judgment upon which the execution is issued, is exempt from seizure, except for the food, clothing and bedding of the execution debtor and his family.

In case of the death of the execution debtor, his property exempt from seizure under execution, is exempt from seizure under execution against his personal representative, if the said property is in the use and enjoyment of the widow and children, or widow, or children of the deceased and is necessary for their support.

The above exemptions do not apply to any case where the debtor has absconded, or is about to abscond from the Province, leaving no wife or family, not to an execution issued upon a judgment or order for the payment of alimony.

Factors and Mercantile Agents—The Factors Act of the Province is almost in the exact words of the English Factors Act of 1889.

Fire Insurance—Where, by reason of necessity, accident or mistake the conditions of any contract of fire insurance on property in the Province, as to the proof to be given to the Insurance Company after the occurrence of a fire, have not been strictly complied with, or where, after a statement or proof of loss has been given in good faith, by or on behalf of the assured, in pursuance of any proviso or condition of such contract, the company, through its agent or otherwise, objects to the loss upon other grounds than for imperfect compliance with such conditions, or does not, within a reasonable time after receiving such statement or proof, notify the assured in writing that such statement or proof is objected to and what are the particulars in which the same is alleged to be defective, and so from time to time, or where for any other reason the Court or Judge before whom a question relating to such insurance tried or inquired into, considers it inequitable that the insurance should be deemed void or forfeited by reason of imperfect compliance with such conditions, no objection to the sufficiency of such statement or proof, or amendment or supplemental statement or proof, as the case may be, shall in any such case be allowed as a discharge of the liability of the company on such contract of insurance wherever entered into.

Where the loss, if any, under any policy has, with the consent of the company, been made payable to some person or persons or company other than the assured, as mortgagee or mortgagees, said policy shall not be cancelled by the company upon the application of the assured, nor in any case without reasonable notice to the said mortgagee or mortgagees.

Certain statutory conditions are specified to be deemed as against the insurers part of every contract of fire insurance and to be printed in the policies. Variations in such conditions may be made by the insurers by complying with certain requirements as to conspicuous notices of such variations. Conditions held by the Court to be not just and reasonable are void. Decisions thereon are subject to review or appeal to the same extent as in other cases.

Foreign Companies—No foreign company having gain for its object or a part of its object can carry on any part of its business in the Province unless registered.

The taking orders by travellers for goods, wares or merchandise, to be subsequently imported into the Province to fill such orders, or the buying or selling of such goods, wares or merchandise by correspondence, if the company has no resident agent or representative, and no warehouse, office or place of business in the Province, the onus of proving which, in any prosecution, rests on the accused, shall not be deemed to be carrying on business under the meaning of the ordinance.

Registration is made by filing certain statements and appointing an attorney to accept service of process and receive notices, etc., within the Province, and paying certain fees according to schedule.

Any foreign company required to become registered cannot, while unregistered, maintain any action or other proceeding in any Court in respect of any contract made in whole or in part within the Province in the course of or in connection with business carried on without registration. The burden of showing that it is registered is upon the company.

There are also certain penalties by fine in case of carrying on business without registration.

Insurance for the Benefit of Wife and Children—One may insure, or subsequently to insurance declare (in writing) the insurance to be, for the benefit of his wife and children, or some or one of them. This creates a trust, and the moneys payable under the policy go direct to the wife and children, or some or one of them, according to the terms of the policy or declaration, and is not chargeable with the insured's debts, nor does it form part of his estate. The trust may be extended and reapportioned by the insured.

The Act has full and detailed provisions giving certain powers and protection and providing for possible circumstances and contingencies.

Intestacy—The Law of Alberta is practically the Law of England with the exception that the widow of a man dying leaving no issue, takes all his property, provided that prior to his death, she had not left him or lived in adultery. The mother of a person dying intestate without wife, child or father, shall be entitled to the whole of his property.

Illegitimate children share the property of the mother dying intestate as if they were legitimate, and the mother of any such children dying intestate shall be entitled to the personal property of the child. Land descends and is distributed as if it were personal estate; both dower and courtesy have been abolished.

Justices of the Peace—Justices of the Peace are appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for the Province, and have jurisdiction throughout the same. Besides their jurisdiction in criminal matters, they have certain civil jurisdiction in certain matters specified by certain ordinances.

Land Titles—The Torrens system is in force. Procedure is provided by the Act for bringing under the Act any land not already so. Nearly all the land is now under the Land Titles Act and dealt with under the Torrens system.

Instruments are entitled to priority according to the time of registration.

Whenever any land is granted by the Crown, the Registrar retains the Letters Patent and a certificate or title is granted to the patentee. Upon the registration of each transfer, the late certificate of title is cancelled and a new one issued to the new registered owner. The original certificate of title is retained in the office and a duplicated certificate of title delivered to the owner. When the land is mortgaged, the duplicate certificate of title is impounded and retained in the Registry Office until the mortgage is discharged.

(Section 43) "The land mentioned in any certificate of title granted under this Act shall, by implication and without any special mention therein, unless the contrary is expressly declared, be subject to—

- (a) Any subsisting reservations or exceptions contained in the original grant of the land from the Crown;
- (b) All unpaid taxes;
- (c) Any public highway or right of way, or other public easement, howsoever created upon, over or in respect of the land;
- (d) Any subsisting lease or agreement for a lease for a period not exceeding three years, where there is actual occupation of the land under the same;
- (e) Any decrees, orders or executions against or affecting the interest of the owner of the land which have been registered and maintained in force against the owner;
- (f) Any right of expropriation which may, by statute or ordinance, be vested in any person, body corporated, or His Majesty;
- (g) Any right of way or other easement granted or acquired under the provisions of any Act or law in force in the Province."

(Section 44) "Every certificate of title granted under this Act shall (except in case of fraud, wherein the owner has participated or colluded), so long as the same remains in force and uncanceled under this Act be conclusive evidence in all Courts as against His Majesty and all persons whomsoever that the person named therein is entitled to the land included in the same, for the estate or interest therein specified, subject to the exceptions and reservations mentioned in the next preceding section, except so far as regards any portion of land by wrong description of boundaries, or parcels included in such certificate of title, and except as against any person claiming under a prior certificate of title granted under this Act or granted under any law heretofore in force relating to titles to real property in respect of the same land; and for the purpose of this section that persons shall be deemed to claim under a prior certificate of title who is holder of or whose claim is derived directly or indirectly from the person who was the holder of the earliest certificate of title granted, notwithstanding that such certificate of title has been surrendered and a new certificate of title has been granted upon any transfer or other instrument."

Forms of transfers, leases (for over three years), mortgages, encumbrances and other instruments are provided by the Act. Provision is made for implied powers and covenants in respect of certain instruments. There is provision for short form covenants in leases and mortgages. Full and detailed provisions are made with regard to registration of plans and sub-divisions. If any instrument is executed by attorney, the power of attorney must be registered. All instruments, unless executed by a corporation and except judgments or orders of Court, etc., must, in order to become registered, be duly witnessed and accompanied by affidavit of execution in the form, and complete in the manner, required by the Act. (See below). Provision is made for transmission of title to land or mortgage, etc., into the name of the executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased person. Executions and renewals thereof are registered by notice given by the Sheriff to the Registrar.

Provision is made for the protection in the Registry Office of any person claiming to be interested under any will, settlement or trust deed, or any instrument of transfer or transmission, or under an unregistered instrument, or under an execution where the execution creditor seeks to affect land in which the execution debtor is interested beneficially but the title of which is registered in the name of some other person or otherwise howsoever in any land, mortgage or encumbrance, by his filing a caveat in the form provided by the Act, which prevents the Registrar from registering an instrument purporting to affect the land, mortgage, or encumbrance in respect of which said caveat is lodged, unless such instrument be expressed to be subject to the claim of the caveator. Provisions are made for withdrawal or, under certain conditions, lapse, of the caveat and for proceedings in connection therewith. The purchasers' rights under an agreement of sale are often in practice protected by caveat.

Affidavits of execution of instruments made within the Province, must be taken before the Inspector of Land Titles Offices or the Registrar, or Deputy Registrar of the registration district in which the land is situated, or before a Judge, Stipendiary Magistrate, Notary Public, Commissioner for taking affidavits, or a Justice of Peace in or for the Province.

Affidavits of execution of instruments made without the Province, must be taken before certain specified officials as follows:—

- (a) If made in any Province of Canada, before a Judge of any Court of Record, any Commissioner authorized to take affidavits in such province for use in any Court of Record in this Province, or before any Notary Public under his official seal; or
- (b) If made in Great Britain or Ireland, before a Judge of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England or Ireland, or of the Court of Sessions or of the Judiciary Court in Scotland, or a Judge of any of the County Courts within his county, or the Mayor of any city or incorporated town under the common seal of such city or town, or before any Commissioner in Great Britain or Ireland, authorized to take affidavits therein, for use in any Court of Record in the Province, or a Notary Public under his official seal; or

- (c) If made in any British colony or possession out of Canada, before a Judge of any Court of Record, the Mayor of any city or incorporated town under the common seal of such city or town, or Notary Public under his official seal; or
- (d) If made in any foreign country, before the Mayor of any city or incorporated town, under the common seal of any such city or town, or before the British Consul, Vice-consul or Consular Agent residing therein, or before any Judge of any Court of Record, or a Notary Public under his official seal.

The registration fees are partly applied to what is known as the "Assurance Fund," which is liable for the protection of owners or encumbrancers in certain cases of mistake or errors in the Registry Office.

(See the Land Titles Act, Statutes of Alberta, 1906, Chap. 24.)

41. For each certificate signed by the Registrar, Deputy Registrar or Acting-Registrar and authenticated by the registrar's official seal, and not otherwise provided for....	.25

Assurance Fund Fees.—Note—In addition to the above fees there is payable to the assurance fund on the registration upon every absolute transfer of land after the issue of the first certificate of title therefor, one-fifth of one per cent. of the value of the land transferred if such value amounts to or is less than five thousand dollars, and one-tenth of one per cent. on the additional value where such value exceeds five thousand dollars; and upon every subsequent transfer upon the increase of value since the granting of the last certificate of title one-fifth of one per cent. if the increase is not more than five thousand dollars, and one-tenth of one per cent. on any excess over such five thousand dollars, such valuation in each case to be ascertained by the oath or affirmation of the applicant, owner, or person acquiring the land, or of such other person as the registrar believes to be acquainted with the value of the land and whose oath or affirmation he is willing to accept.

Limitation of Actions—All actions for recovery of merchants accounts, bills, notes, and all actions of debt grounded upon any lending or other contract without specialty must be commenced within six years after the cause of such action arose.

The provision of the Real Property Limitation Act, 1874, being Chapter 57 of the Statutes of the Imperial Parliament, passed in the 37th and 38th years of Her Majesty's reign, are, by statute, declared to be in force in the Province and to have been in force since the passing thereof.

No right to the access and use of light or any other easement, right in gross or profit a prendre are to be acquired by prescription.

Married Women—Married women, in respect of both land and personal property, have all the rights and are subject to all the liabilities of a feme sole.

Mechanics' Liens—The Mechanics' Lien Act gives a lien to a contractor, sub-contractor, labourer and furnisher of material. The lien expires in 31 days after completion of the work of furnishing of the material, unless registered as provided by the Act. The lien ceases to exist after the expiration of 90 days after the registration unless proceedings are instituted in the meantime and a certificate of such commencement of proceedings lodged in the Registry Office.

If the work of improvements are put upon mortgaged premises, the lien takes priority over the mortgage to the extent of the increase in value of the mortgaged premises by reason of such work or improvements, to be determined according as is provided by the Act.

There are provisions (in cases where the contract price exceeds $500.00) by which an owner may, in paying his contractor, take measures to protect himself against labourers' liens by requiring production of the receipted pay-roll.

No lien, except for more than six weeks' wages in favor of labourers, attaches so as to make an owner liable for a greater sum than the sum owing by the owner to the contractor at the time of the receipt by the owner or person having superintendence of the work on behalf of the owner, of notice in writing of such lien and of the amount thereof; or which may become owing by the owner to the contractor at any time subsequent thereto, while such lien is in effect. Where more than one such notice is given, the later notice must contain a statement, as provided by the Act, of the total amount of balance owing.

See the Mechanics' Lien Act, Chapter 21, of the Statutes of 1906, and amendments thereto.

Partnership—The law of partnership is codified under "The Partnership Ordinance" (Consolidated Ordinances of the Territories, 1905, Chapter 94) which is almost in the same words, as the English Partnership Act.

There is also an Act requiring registration of partnerships for trading, manufacturing, contracting or mining purposes. A declaration setting out certain particulars must be filed in the office of the Registration Clerk of the district for the registration of chattel mortgages in which the business is or is intended to be carried on, within six months next after the formation of the partnership, or at any time upon a fiat of a Judge. A similar declaration must be filed on any change of partnership. Registration is also required in the case of a person carrying on business himself under a trade name or using the words "& Company," etc. A penalty is provided in case of failure to register.

Replevin—Where plaintiff claims goods are unlawfully detained from him, he may, after issue of writ of summons, obtain a writ of replevin for the delivery of the property to him on his complying with certain rules. These rules include the filing of an affidavit setting out certain facts and (before replevy is made) giving a bond to the Sheriff in double the value of the property, which bond is assignable to the defendant by the Sheriff endorsing his name thereon, and which endorsement enables the defendant to bring an action thereon in his own name against the parties who have executed it. The defendant may recover under the bond the value of the property replevied, the amount of any judgment in his favor in the original action, and such damages as he may have suffered by reason of the replevy. Provision is made for service of the writ of replevin; which service is not made until after the Sheriff has replevied; and certain powers are given to the Sheriff for enforcing the writ should the property be concealed. Provision is made for the defendant retaining the property (except in case of distress for rent or damage feasant) upon giving security which may be assigned by the Sheriff to the plaintiff by endorsement, which endorsement enables the plaintiff to bring action in his own name against the parties who have executed the security.

Sale of Goods—The law is codified in "The Sale of Goods Ordinance," which is similar to the English Act.

Succession Duties—An estate, the value of which does not exceed $5,000.00, is not liable to pay Succession Duties, nor is an estate so liable in respect of the property passing by will or intestacy, or otherwise, to or for the use of the father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, child, grand-child, daughter-in-law or son-in-law of the deceased, or to any person or persons adopted before the age of 12 years by the deceased as his child or children, or to any person to whom deceased, for any period less than 10 years prior to his death, stood in the acknowledged relation of parent, where the aggregate value of the property of the deceased does not exceed $25,000.00.

Save as aforesaid, the estate of any person at the time of his death domiciled in the Province, or who, being domiciled elsewhere, dies leaving property within the Province, is liable to Succession Duty to the extent and according to the basis of calculation provided by the Act.

See the "Succession Duty Ordinance," Consolidated ordinance of the Territories, 1905, Chapter 116 (as amended by the Statutes of Alberta, 1909, Chapter 5, Section 6).

Wills—The law relating to the execution and interpretation of Wills is contained in the North-west Territories Act, being the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, Chapter 62, Sections 17 to 25 inclusive.

Workmen's Compensation—Chapter 98 of the consolidated ordinance of the Territories, 1905, being known as "The Workmen's Compensation Ordinance," provides that "It shall not be a good defence in law to any action against an employer or the successor or legal representative of an employer for damages for the injury or death of an employee of such employer, that such injury or death resulted from the negligence of an employee engaged in a common employment with the injured employee, any contract or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding."

The Workmen's Compensation Act, 1908 (being Chapter 12 of the Statutes of Alberta of 1908), applies to certain specified employments and provides that if in any such employment personal injury by accident arising out of and in course of the employment is caused to a workman, his employer shall (subject to certain provisions) be liable to pay compensation in accordance with a schedule to the Act, which schedule provides the scale and conditions of compensation.

An employer is not liable under the Act in respect to any injury which does not disable the workman for a period of at least two weeks from earning full wages.

When the injury is caused by the personal negligence or willful act of the employer or of some person for whose act or default the employer is responsible, nothing in the Act is to affect any civil liability of the employer, but the workman may, at his option, either claim compensation under this Act or take proceedings independently of the Act. But the employer is not to be liable to pay compensation for injury to a workman by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, both independently of and also under the Act, and is not to be liable to any person independently of the Act, except in case of such personal negligence or willful act as aforesaid.

If it is proved that the injury to a workman is attributable to the serious and willful misconduct of that workman, any compensation claimed in respect of that injury shall, unless the injury results in death or permanent disablement, be disallowed.

Provision is made for settling questions that may arise with regard to the statute, injury sustained, the nature of the employment, etc., by arbitration. The arbitration procedure is provided by the Act.

Provision is made in case action is brought independently of the Act and dismissed, for compensation to be awarded under the Act (if the plaintiff so chooses) and for deduction for costs, etc., and a certificate is given of the compensation and deduction, which certificate has the effect of an award.

There are provisions limiting the time within which notice in writing must be given and claims for compensation made.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

SYNOPSIS OF LAWS.

Compiled expressly for the "Canada Legal Directory" by Robertson & Heisterman, Victoria, of the British Columbia Bar.

Revised to January 1st, 1913.

The Courts are: Court of Appeal, Supreme Court, and County Court.

The Court of Appeal consists of four Judges.

The Supreme Court consists of five Judges, headed by the Chief Justice of British Columbia, who singly exercise the functions of the superior Courts of first instance with unlimited jurisdiction.

The County Court has Common Law Jurisdiction up to one thousand dollars, and an equitable jurisdiction not exceeding $2,500.00. In places where there is no Supreme Court Judge, the County Court Judge is also local Judge of the Supreme Court, and has, generally speaking, the jurisdiction of a Supreme Court Judge, as far as interlocutory civil matters are concerned. He also has a special mining jurisdiction in mining districts.

There is also a Small Debts Court, presided over by a stipendiary Magistrate, having jurisdiction in simple actions for debts not exceeding $100.00. In the Small Debts Court, however, no counterclaim can be entertained.

In addition to the above Courts there are the local Admiralty Courts, which, however, are not controlled by Provincial Legislation.

Absconding Debtor—Any person in the Province owing an amount exceeding $100.00, who leaves the jurisdiction with intent to defraud his creditors, is liable to have his goods seized under a Writ of Attachment. Similarly, the Plaintiff, upon showing that the Defendant owes him $100.00 or more, and is about to leave the jurisdiction, may, upon proper affidavits being filed, have the Defendant arrested under a Writ of Capias ad Respondendum, when the Defendant remains in custody unless he gives bail. After Judgment, however, the Defendant may be discharged if he can show inability to pay the debt.

Similarly a judgment Debtor may be arrested under a Writ of Capias ad Satisfaciendum, on a showing by the Plaintiff that he is about to leave the Province with intent to defraud his creditors, but he will be discharged if he can show inability to pay the debt.

It will be noted that in British Columbia the old law prevails, and a defendant is subject to arrest on a Writ of Ca. Re. upon showing that he is about to leave the jurisdiction without allegation that he is doing so for the purpose of defrauding his creditors.

Within its jurisdiction the County Court has the same powers as to arrest as the Supreme Court.

Assignment for Benefit of Creditors—The Debtor may assign all his real and personal estate to any person for the purpose of distributing his assets rateably among his creditors. Such assignment must be registered in the County Court within twenty-one days, and notice thereof published in the "British Columbia Gazette" and a local newspaper. Such assignment takes precedence of all judgments, executions and attachments, not completely executed by payment.

The Assignee may be selected by the Debtor, but may be removed by a Judge on the application of a Creditor, who must show cause on petition verified by affidavit. All questions are decided at a creditors' meeting by a majority of votes. Voting powers are established by statute on a sliding scale, according to the amounts of the claims.

Bills of Sale and Chattel Mortgages—These must be filed in the local County Court Registry within five days where the goods mortgaged are within the corporate limits of a City or Town containing a County Court Registry. In other cases registration must be effected within twenty-one days. At the same time there must be filed an affidavit of execution by the witness, and an affidavit of bona fides by the Grantor. Bills of Sale take priority according to the date of registration.

Hire and Purchase Agreements and Trading Partnership Agreements must also be registered.

Should any Bill of Sale be given subject to any defeasance, condition or declaration not therein mentioned, the filing is void.

Coal—Any person may stake unalienated coal lands, and after advertisement, apply for the right to prospect the same. Such application must be accompanied by a fee of $100.00, and the claim must not exceed 640 acres. Upon showing that coal has been discovered, a lease for a term of five years may be obtained at an annual rental of fifteen cents an acre. Under every lease $100.00 worth of work must be done annually or that amount paid to the Government. Not more than ten claims may be grouped and all the work done on one claim. Upon complying with the Act, and proving the existence of coal, a Crown Grant may be obtained upon payment of $10.00 per acre, though if the surface rights have been previously alienated by the Crown, the amount payable is $5.00 per acre. There is also a royalty payable in respect of coal obtained under these circumstances. An individual may stake any number of claims.

Crown Grants—There have been from time to time a number of various forms of Crown Grants in use in British Columbia. At present a Crown Grant of lands under the Land Act reserves coal and petroleum, as well as metals both precious and base. A Crown Grant under the Mineral Act carries the metals, precious and base, but not coal and petroleum or the surface, while a Crown Grant under the Coal Mines Act includes coal and petroleum, and may or may not carry the surface rights as hereinbefore mentioned.

Crown Lands—In British Columbia Crown Lands belong to the Province, and the disposition thereof is regulated by the Land Act. Vacant and unoccupied Crown Lands may be acquired by an individual either by pre-emption, purchase or lease. The pre-emptor who desires to settle upon unsurveyed land must first put a stake at one corner of the land required, giving a notice describing the land sought for, and must also make application in writing to the Assistant Commissioner of Lands for the District in which the land is situate. This application must be accompanied by a sketch and the declaration required by the Act. 160 acres may be taken up in this way by any British subject over eighteen, being the head of a family, a widow, or single man, or by any alien upon his making a declaration of intention to become a British subject. Within sixty days of the date of his pre-emption record, the Pre-emptor must enter into occupation of the land, and he must not be absent from the land more than two months in one year, except with leave, which is easily obtained. The Pre-emptor, also, has to make improvements of the value of $2.50 per acre, and after two years residence, and upon receiving his certificate of such improvements, is entitled to a Crown Grant upon payment of $1.00 an acre. The purchase price of $1.00 per acre can be paid in four equal annual installments, the first one falling due within two years from the date of entering upon the land. Where the Pre-emptor settles upon unsurveyed land, he must have the land surveyed at his own expense. No Crown Grant is issued until the Pre-emptor shall have lived upon the land for at least two years and a fee of $10.00 is payable in respect of the Crown Grant. Alien pre-emptors must be fully naturalized before receiving a Crown Grant. Only one homestead can be pre-empted at a time, but upon obtaining a certificate of improvements, a pre-emptor may pre-empt another piece of land. He may also apply to purchase land as hereinafter mentioned, whether he has obtained a certificate of improvement or not.

Purchase—Crown Lands, whether surveyed or unsurveyed, are open to purchase, unless a reserve has been placed upon the same by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and at present very large areas of land have been reserved from lease or purchase pending survey, although the same are open to pre-emption. In the case of unsurveyed lands the purchaser or agent may stake a tract of land not exceeding 640 acres. Within thirty days after staking he must post a copy of his location notice in the office of the local Commissioner. He must further, within the same period, at his own expense, publish this notice for two months in the "British Columbia Gazette" and a newspaper published in the district where the land is located. Within three months from the date of this publication, he must make formal application, in duplicate, to purchase the land, to the local Commissioner, such application to be accompanied by a deposit of fifty cents an acre, together with a declaration of publication. The local Commissioner sends the application to the Department at Victoria where the same is adjudicated upon. If leave to purchase is granted, the applicant must have the land surveyed and classified at his own expense, and complete his purchase within six months, unless under special circumstances further time is allowed.

For surveyed lands, application must be made to the local Commissioner, which application must be accompanied by a deposit of one quarter of the purchase money. The balance may be paid upon acceptance of the application, or in three annual installments, bearing interest at 6 per cent.

Only land suitable for agricultural purposes can be so bought, and the same is classified into first and second class lands. The ruling price for first class lands is $10.00 an acre, and for second class lands $5.00 an acre.

Land west of the Cascades, averaging 8,000 feet of milling timber to the acre, or east of the cascades, averaging 5,000 feet, is not open to sale.

An individual can only purchase one piece of land in his own name in the foregoing manner.

Leases may be obtained for purposes of cutting hay for a term of ten years, and for any other purpose for a term of twenty-one years. In case of leases, the procedure is similar to that in the case of applying to purchase unsurveyed lands. The leases so granted contained a proviso that the Lessee must survey the land within six months. Special leases of Lots not exceeding twenty acres in area are also granted.

Enforcement of Judgment—Execution may be issued forthwith after judgment. If the Judgment Debtor has real estate, the Judgment may be registered in the Land Registry Office against his lands, whereupon the Judgment becomes a lien upon the lands, and on application to a Judge, leave may be obtained to sell sufficient thereof to satisfy the Judgment.

The Debtor's goods are exempt from seizure under execution to the amount of five hundred dollars, and homestead lands are exempt to the value of $2,500.00.

The Judgment Debtor may be examined on taking out a summons, and compelled to answer questions as to his property at the time the debt was incurred and any subsequent disposition thereof. Such Debtor may be committed for unsatisfactory answers, or for failing to obey an order for payment made by a Judge as a result of such examination.

In the County Court similar procedure is in force.

Priority of execution does not exist, but under the Creditor's Relief Act, any creditor, by giving proper notice of his claim to the Sheriff and the Registrar of the Court within thirty days of a seizure by the Sheriff, is given an opportunity to substantiate his claim and share rateable in the proceeds of the execution.

In such case the costs and expenses of the creditor who levied the first execution are paid before the division is made.

Foreign Judgments—An action can be brought on a Foreign Judgment against any person within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and if the Judgment is not impeached or denied it is prima facie evidence against the Defendant.

Garnishment—Upon affidavit substantiating the claim, moneys in the hands of third parties, payable to the Defendant, may be attached by the Plaintiff, whereupon the funds are paid into Court. Both in the Supreme and County Courts money may be garnisheed upon an Ex Parte application supported by a proper affidavit. A Judge, however, may permit a portion of the moneys garnished to be refunded to the Debtor for the support of himself and his family, such refund not exceeding $40.00 per month.

Intestacy—Under the Inheritance Act, whenever any person dies, any real estate of which he may have been possessed at the time of his death descends generally speaking in the following manner:

1. To his lineal descendants and those claiming by or under them per stirpes.
2. To his Father.
3. To his Mother.
4. To his collateral relatives.
5. Provided that if the Intestate leaves a widow or husband such widow or husband, as the case may be, is entitled in case the Intestate has left no lawful descendants, to one half of such real estate absolutely, and in case the Intestate has left lawful descendants to one-third of such real estate for life.
6. If the Intestate leaves several descendants in the direct line, the lineal descendants being all of equal degree the Inheritance descends to such persons in equal parts.
7. If some of the Children of the Intestate are living and others dead, the inheritance descends to the children who are living and to the descendants of such children as have died.

Under the Administration Act the personal estate of a person dying intestate is distributed in the following manner:

One-third of the surplusage to the wife of the intestate and all the residue by equal portions amongst the children of such person dying intestate and such persons legally representing such children in case any of them be dead.

If there are any children of the intestate or legal representatives of them, then one moiety of the surplusage is allotted to the wife of the Intestate and the remainder thereof is distributed equally to every of the next of kin of the Intestate who are of equal degree and those who legally represent them.

If there is no wife the whole of the surplusage is distributed equally amongst the children, and if there is neither wife nor children, to the next of kin in equal degree.

If after the death of the Father any of his children shall die intestate without wife or children in the lifetime of the Mother, the brothers and sisters, or the representatives of them shall have an equal share with her.

Joint Stock Companies—In 1910 a new Companies Act was passed, largely based on the Imperial Statute of 1908, in which the chief novel feature is the adoption of stringent regulations with regard to prospectuses, and the liability of directors for the statements therein contained. As before, the liability of a shareholder may be limited to the amount of his shares, by guarantee, or may be unlimited.

Railway Companies cannot be incorporated under this Act.

Special clauses permitting Mining Companies to be incorporated without personal liability are continued, as are the provisions respecting extra Provincial Companies, which were first enacted in 1897. Extra Provincial English and Canadian Companies are required to take out a license in British Columbia before doing business, the fee for which is graduated according to the amount of their capital, but where one half of the capital is already invested in an existing business outside of the Province, the fee in no case exceeds $250.00. When so licensed, such a company may do business in British Columbia in accordance with the terms of its charter. In the case of other extra Provincial Companies, registration must be applied for, for which the same fees are charged as for a license. Extra Provincial Companies, unlike licensed companies, are required to comply with all the provisions of the British Columbia Companies Act, including the filing of annual returns. Extra Provincial Companies doing business in the Province without being licensed or registered, are subject, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding $50.00 a day for every day upon which they have so transacted business. Since the passage of the present Companies Act, the local agents of such companies are also liable to a penalty of $20.00 a day. Prosecutions for the recovery of these penalties, however, must be commenced within six months, and then only with the written consent of the Attorney-General. Until so licensed or registered, an extra Provincial Company cannot maintain an action as plaintiff in British Columbia Courts in respect of any contract made in the course of its business. This disability, however, can be avoided by the obtaining of a license or registration before trial.

A special limited license is also granted to extra Provincial Companies desiring only to obtain power to acquire, hold and alienate land, and to loan and invest its money in land or other securities. The fee for such limited license is $50.00.

Judgments—In the Supreme Court in the case of specially endorsed Writ for a liquidated demand, if the defendant fails to appear within eight days, final judgment may be entered for the amount endorsed on the Writ, together with interest at the rate specified. Under proper conditions speedy judgment can also be obtained where the Defendant has no good defence, but has only entered an appearance for purposes of delay.

In the County Court a similar practice prevails if an appearance is not entered within nine days.

Land Registry—All titles are registered, and under Section 74 of the Land Registry Act of 1911, no instrument purporting to transfer, charge, deal with, or affect land, or any estate or interest therein (except a leasehold interest in possession for a term not exceeding three years) shall pass any estate or interest, either at law or in equity, in such land, until the same is registered.

The owner of the property applying for a certificate of Title may apply either for an absolute or an indefeasible fee. In the latter case, slightly higher fees are required, and his title is thereupon guaranteed by the Government, subject to certain specified exceptions. In all cases the applicant is now required to deposit all documents of title in the Land Registry Office, receiving in exchange a certificate of Title or Charge, as the case may be, which must be surrendered for endorsement or the issuance of a further certificate as circumstances may require when the property is next dealt with. Every interest in land less than a fee simple is registered as a charge. There is an appeal from the refusal of the Registrar to register a title to a Judge of the Supreme Court.

Laws—The Common Law of England is in force in British Columbia, as are also the Statute Laws of England as the same existed on the 19th day of November, 1858, so far as the same are not, from local circumstances, inapplicable, and so far as they have not been repealed or modified by local or Dominion Legislation.

Limitations of Actions—Actions founded on simple contracts must be founded within six years after the cause of action arises. Actions for trespass, assault, battery, wounding, and imprisonment within four years; for slander within two years; for recovery of lands and speciality deeds within twenty years.

Married Women—Married women may make contracts and hold property in the same manner as if unmarried, and they may also sue with reference to their separate contracts or estate.

Mining Law—This law cannot be satisfactorily covered in the space at disposal, but it may briefly be stated that any person over the age of eighteen, whether a British subject or not, upon obtaining a mining license, costing $5.00 per annum, may stake mineral claims. Such claims may be 1,500 feet square, and give a right to all metals contained within their boundaries extending down to the centre of the earth. To keep a claim in good standing, $100.00 worth of work must be done each year, or that amount paid to the local Mining Recorder in lieu of work. Upon doing $500.00 worth of work, or upon payment of $500.00, a certificate of improvements can be obtained, when a Crown Grant will issue upon survey and payment of the proper fees. A mineral claim only carries the right of user so far as the surface is concerned, but the surface rights can usually be purchased from the Government for an additional $5.00 per acre.

A Miner's License gives the prospector a right to prospect for any unalienated minerals except coal and petroleum.

In the event of locating a claim where the surface is privately owned, he must give security for damage done.

An individual miner can only locate one claim on the same vein for himself. A company may locate a number of claims, but has to pay an extra fee for its mining license.

Petroleum—The regulations for petroleum are the same as those for coal.

Placer Mining—Leases of land for hydraulic and placer mining purposes are also issued.

Practice—The practice of the Supreme Court is modeled on the English practice, and most of the rules follow verbatim the English Rules of Court. Some Ontario features, however, have been introduced, notably the practice of examining the parties to a case on discovery, a right which is exerciseable here in addition to the English practice of delivering interrogatories.

Timber Lands—Land covered by merchantable timber may be staked in a manner similar to lands acquired by purchase, but these sections of the Land Act are inoperative at present as all unappropriated timber is now under reserve.

By the Act of 1910 Timber Licenses were made renewable in perpetuity, provided that any holder of any existing license, who desires to take advantage of the new Act, must make application within two years from April 1st, 1910. Such application should be made upon the expiry of the existing license, and must be accompanied by a fee of $20.00 per license. The annual license fee is $140.00, and the timber, when cut, is subject to a stumpage royalty.

No license holder may cut his timber until it has been surveyed, and all holders of licenses are required to survey their timber when called upon so to do by the Surveyor-General.

MANITOBA

SYNOPSIS OF LAWS.

Compiled expressly for the "Canada Legal Directory" by Aikins, Loftus and Aikins, Winnipeg, of the Manitoba Bar.

Revised to January 1, 1913.

Affidavits—When made outside of the Province for use in the Province should be made before—

- (a) Any Notary Public who shall affix his seal;
- (b) Any Judge of any Court who shall affix the seal of the Court;
- (c) Any Mayor or other officer of a municipal corporation who shall affix the seal of the Corporation.

Aliens—Every kind of property may be held and disposed of by aliens in the same manner as by British subjects.

Arrest—Arrest for debt has now been abolished.

Assignments—See Bankruptcy.

Attachments—A debtor is liable to have all his property, real and personal, except such as is exempt from seizure and execution, attached for the payment of a debt or the satisfaction of a legal cause of action. First—Whenever such debtor, being an inhabitant of the Province, shall depart therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid being arrested or served with process, or shall, with the like intent, conceal himself therein. Second—Whenever such person, not being a resident of the Province, shall be indebted, or legally liable to a person residing in this Province, in respect of a contract or any cause of action made or arising in the Province, or in respect of a contract made elsewhere to be performed or partly performed therein. Third—Whenever any such person, being a resident or non-resident of the Province, is about to remove or transfer any of his property from the Province, or has assigned, disposed of or secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of, or secrete any of his estate, real or personal, with intent to defeat, delay or defraud creditors. An order for an attachment may be obtained in an action commenced in the usual manner.

Barristers—Admission to the Bar of Manitoba.

Every barrister, attorney or solicitor from England, Scotland or Ireland, or from any of the Provinces or Territories of the Dominion of Canada, must give to the Secretary of the Law Society of Manitoba, a notice of his intended application to be called or admitted, in the prescribed form, and must file the papers and pay the fees required by the rules of the Society.

Notice must be given by the applicant during the week previous to the Term in which he desires to be called. Fees must be paid and all necessary papers produced at the time the notice is given.

Every such barrister, attorney or solicitor must produce his diploma or certificate of his call to the Bar or a certificate of his admission as an attorney or solicitor, as the case may be, in the country, province or territory where he has been so called or admitted; a testimonial of good character and conduct; a statutory declaration made by himself that he is now on the roll of barristers, attorneys or solicitors in such country, province or territory, in good standing and that so far as he is aware, no application is pending at the time of his making such declaration to strike him off the roll; and the Treasurer's receipt for fees payable.

Barristers from England, Scotland or Ireland will be entitled to call to the Bar, without examination, upon payment of fees and complying with the rules as to notices, etc.

Barristers from any of the Provinces or Territories of the Dominion of Canada must pass an examination on the books and subjects prescribed for the Final call examination, unless entitled to the privilege conferred by R. S. M. 1902, c. 95, s. 62, s.s. (b).

Attorneys and solicitors from England, Scotland or Ireland, or from any of the Provinces or Territories of the Dominion of Canada, must pass an examination in the statute laws of the Province, and the practice of the Courts of Manitoba.

Fees—On every notice for admission or examination, $2.00; fee on admission as student-at-law, $50.00; Attorney's examination fee, $60.00; Barrister's examination fee, $100.00; for barristers from England, Scotland or Ireland, or any of the Provinces or Territories of the Dominion of Canada, $150.00; for attorneys or solicitors of any of His Majesty's Superior Courts in England, Scotland or Ireland, or any of the Provinces or Territories of the Dominion of Canada, $350.00.

Bankruptcy—There is no bankruptcy law in this Province, but a debtor may make an assignment for the benefit of his creditors, and insure a rateable distribution of his assets.

Bills of Sale and Chattel Mortgages—Sales and mortgages of personal property not accompanied by an immediate delivery and followed by an actual and continued change of possession, are absolutely void as against creditors of Vendor and Mortgagee and subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith for value without actual notice, unless a Bill of Sale or Mortgage be filed with the Clerk of the County Court in the Judicial Division where the goods and chattels are situate within twenty days from the date thereof, accompanied by an affidavit of execution, and an affidavit of the Vendee or Mortgagee showing the good faith of the transaction. Such mortgage must be renewed within thirty days preceding the expiration of two years from date of filing, by filing a statement exhibiting the interest of the Mortgagee in the property and showing the amount due and payments made and an affidavit that the mortgage is not kept on foot for any fraudulent purpose, otherwise it will cease to be valid as against creditors and subsequent purchasers and mortgagees in good faith for valuable consideration.

Bulk Sales Act.—Every purchaser of a stock of goods in bulk is bound to demand from the vendor a statement verified by affidavit showing particulars of claim of all creditors exceeding $50.00, and if purchase price is less than total of such claims sale is fraudulent and void against creditors of vendor unless a written consent thereto is obtained from at least sixty per cent. of the creditors shown on such sworn statement. The proceeds of any such sale must be paid into the hands of a trust company or official assignee for distribution pro rata amongst the creditors of the vendor, unless all the creditors of the vendor are paid in full or unless a written waiver is obtained from at least sixty per cent. in number and value of the creditors having claims exceeding $50.00, as shown by the sworn statement of the vendor.

See Bulk Sales Act, 9 Edw. VII., cap. 60, as amended by 1 Geo. V., cap. 52.

Corporations—Corporations are created by Act of the Provincial Legislature or by Letters Patent under The Joint Stock Company's Act. Shareholders are generally liable only to the amount remaining uncalled on their shares. Foreign corporations, with a few unimportant exceptions, must obtain a license to carry on business in Manitoba.

Deeds—A deed is sufficiently executed if signed and sealed in the presence of one witness. For the purpose of registration it must be witnessed by a subscribing witness who must make an affidavit that he saw the instrument duly executed, that he was personally present, that he knows the party, and that he is a subscribing witness, and the place of execution must also be stated in the affidavit. Short forms of deeds, leases and mortgages are provided by statute. A considerable portion of the land in this Province is under what is known as the Torrens System or The Real Property Act, under which special forms of instruments and special methods of execution and attestation are provided.

Devolution of Estates—See Wills.

Distress—There are certain limitations on the right of distress by landlords. The Mortgagee can only distrain the Mortgagor's goods. A landlord can only distrain as against the tenant for three months' arrears if the rent is payable quarterly or more frequently, or for a year's arrears where the rent is payable less frequently than quarterly.

Divorce—There is no Divorce Court in Manitoba. The procedure adopted is a petition to the Senate of Canada, and relief is given by passage of special Act of Parliament in every case.

Dower—No dower in this Province.

Evidence—See Testimony.

Executions—There is no priority in respect of writs of execution against goods. Writs of execution against lands have been abolished. Where the claim exceeds $40.00, a certificate of judgment can be obtained and registered so as to constitute a lien on the debtor's lands which is capable of being enforced by sale through the Courts.

Exemptions—The following real and personal property are exempt from seizure and sale under writs of execution or other process: First—Bed and bedding in the common use of the judgment debtor, and the household furniture not exceeding five hundred dollars in value. Second—Necessary and ordinary clothing of the judgment debtor and his family, and necessary fuel for six months. Third—Twelve volumes of books, books of professional man, one axe, one saw, one gun, six traps. Fourth—Necessary food for judgment debtor and his family for eleven months. Fifth—Three horses, mules or oxen, six cows, ten sheep, ten pigs, fifty fowls, and food for the same for eleven months—horses exempt only if used by judgment debtor to earn his living. Sixth—The tools, agricultural implements, and the necessities used by judgment debtor in his trade or calling to the value of five hundred dollars. Seventh—Articles and furniture necessary to the performance of religious services. Eighth—Land upon which the defendant or his family resides, or which he cultivates, wholly or in part, provided it be not more than one hundred and sixty acres. Ninth—House, stable, barns and fences on such land. Tenth—Seeds necessary for seeding eighty acres. Eleventh—Actual residence or home of any person other than a farmer, provided the same does not exceed in value fifteen hundred dollars; if it exceeds such value then it can be offered for sale and sold, the fifteen hundred dollars to be paid over to the debtor and the fifteen hundred dollars being exempt from seizure under execution, garnishment, attachment for debt or any legal process. Partnership firms cannot claim exemptions for the several partners but one only for the firm. Wages are exempt from garnishment to the extent of twenty-five dollars. None of these exemptions can be claimed on behalf of a debtor who is in the act of removing from the Province or is about to do so, or who has absconded, taking his family with him. Agreements to waive exemptions are null and void. There are no exemptions in judgments recovered solely for board and lodgings. Twelfth—Chattel property of any municipality a school district in this Province.

Garnishment—In both King's Bench and County Court plaintiff may, at any stage of the action, garnish all debts, obligations and liabilities, due, owing and payable, or accruing due.

Intestacy—See Wills.

Judgments—A judgment remains in force for ten years without renewal; it is not a lien upon either personal or real estate of debtor. Execution may issue at any time within six years, but until issued and placed in the hands of the Sheriff, no lien arises. Certificates of judgments may be issued and registered in the local Registry Office, and they bind all the lands of the debtor within the registration division. The lien thus created may be enforced by suit unless the land is exempt. Executions and certificates of judgments must be renewed every two years. Executions issued out of the County Court must be renewed every year. A judgment is renewable by suit in the ordinary way, but by an amendment no action can be brought upon a judgment recovered on a previous judgment whether in this Province or elsewhere.

Limitations of Actions—On contracts not under seal, action must be brought within six years from the accruing of cause of action; on contracts under seal, within ten years. Actions for the recovery of real estate, within ten years. Acknowledgment of debt or part payment is sufficient to take case out of statute when it begins to run anew. Foreign judgments are simple contracts when it is sought to enforce them.

Married Women may hold and enjoy property free from the debts and control of their husbands in as full and ample a manner as if unmarried, and may contract with respect to their separate property and may also trade and carry on business as if unmarried.

Partnerships—The law relating to partnerships has been codified under Statute Chapter 129, R.S.M. 1902.

Proofs of Claims—In cases where assignments have been made the assignee is entitled to particulars of the claim proved by affidavit. The creditor must state whether he holds security for this claim, and such security may be valued and deducted from the claim, or the assignee may take an assignment thereof at an advance of ten per cent. upon its specified value. In collection cases, where the action is undefended, no proof is necessary; where an application is made to summarily strike out a defence, an affidavit is sufficient; if the case goes to trial, evidence must be taken under commission or actually given at the trial. In forwarding claims for collection, give names of members of firm and full particulars of claim, with dates and items.

Registration—See Deeds.

Sales of Goods—The law relating to sales of goods has been codified under Chap. 152, R.S.M. 1902, and as to bulk sales by Bulk Sales Act. 9 Edw. VII., cap. 60, as amended by 1 Geo. V., cap. 52.

Service of Process—In most cases it must be personal.

Succession Duties—See Wills.

Taxes—Lands may be sold for taxes when taxes are in arrears for more than one year. Redemption may be made at any time before the expiration of two years from the tax sale by applying to the Treasurer of the municipality, village, town or city in which the lands are situated. After two years the tax purchaser makes application to the District Registrar for Title. The Registrar requires six months notice of the application to be served on all persons appearing to have any interest in the land, and until the notice has been served and the time elapsed any person interested may redeem by applying to the District Registrar.

Testimony—The rules of evidence here are those prevailing in England on the 15th day of July, 1870, to some extent modified by local enactments. Evidence used in Court is oral, but commission evidence can be read and depositions of parties taken before special examiners can also be put in evidence without proof. No person is disqualified as a witness by reason of interest. Husbands and wives are competent and compellable witnesses. A witness can affirm instead of taking the usual oath.

Wills—All persons of sound mind and of age of 21 years may dispose of every kind of property and of every interest therein by Will. All Wills must be in writing and must be signed at the foot or end by the Testator or by some other person in his presence and by his direction, and such signature must be made and acknowledged by the Testator in the presence of two or more witnesses present at the same time, and such witnesses shall attest and shall subscribe the Will in the presence of the Testator. A holograph Will, wholly written and signed by the Testator himself, does not require any witness. If any person attests the execution of any Will to whom or to whose wife or husband any benefit is given by such Will, such benefit is null and void, but the person so attesting is a good witness. Wills are revoked by the marriage of a Testator.

Under the Succession Duty Act, 1911, whether property passes by will or otherwise succession duties are payable to the Provincial Treasurer of Manitoba according to Schedule "A" hereto.

Intestacy—Real and personal property devolve in same way.

1. If Intestate leaves a widow and child or children, one third of his property goes to the widow and the remaining two thirds is divided equally among his children. In case of the decease of any of his children, to the children or issue of such deceased child in equal proportions.

2. If Intestate leaves a widow and no issue, the widow takes all.

3. If Intestate leaves children but no widow, children take all per stirpes.

4. If Intestate leaves no widow nor child nor children nor any lineal descendant of any child or children, all goes to his father.

5. If he has no father, to his mother, brothers and sisters in equal shares.

6. No distinction between whole and half blood.

7. Posthumous children share equally with children born during the lifetime of the Intestate, and where there is a Will and no provision for it, takes as if there were an intestacy.

8. The separate property of a married woman dying intestate is distributed in the same manner as the property of a husband dying intestate.

NEW BRUNSWICK

SYNOPSIS OF LAWS.

Compiled expressly for the "Canada Legal Directory" by Weldon & McLean, St. John, of the New Brunswick Bar.

Revised to January 1st, 1913.

Absconding Debtor.—See Attachment.

Acknowledgments.—See Deeds.

Accounts.—The names in full of plaintiffs should be furnished; also, when claim belongs to a copartnership, the full names of the members composing it.

Where the plaintiff is a corporation under special act, it should be stated.

Actions.—Actions are commenced by writ of summons unless the defendant is to be arrested, when a writ of capias is issued on an affidavit of indebtedness made by the plaintiff or his agent.

Parish commissioners have jurisdiction in contract claims to eighty dollars; City Court to the same amount; County Courts have jurisdiction to four hundred dollars except where title to lands is in question. Supreme Court has jurisdiction to any amount.

In Supreme Court where plaintiff seeks to recover a debt or liquidated demand arising on a contract express or implied, a bond or contract under seal for payment of a liquidated amount, etc., the writ may be specially endorsed with a statement of the claim; and, on default of appearance within ten days after service, final judgment may be signed without further proof; while on ordinary summons and default of appearance being made within ten days, the plaintiff may enter interlocutory judgment, and a writ of enquiry shall issue to assess the amount unless the Court orders another method. Where the defendant appears to a writ specially endorsed, and has no defence, the plaintiff may on an affidavit of himself or any other person who can swear positively to the facts, verifying the cause of action, and stating that in his belief there is no defence to the action, apply to a judge for liberty to enter final judgment, and such judge may order judgment unless the defendant satisfies him he has good defence; on an ordinary summons, if defendant appears, the plaintiff delivers a statement of claim; the defendant within ten days delivers his statement of defence, and the plaintiff within ten days more his reply. Where the plaintiff resides out of the Province the defendant may demand from him a bond as security for costs which is generally two hundred dollars, if suit is in the Supreme Court, and one hundred if in the County Court.

In the County Court the defendant has ten days in which to appear and plead, and the cause is at issue on the plea pleaded. In the County Court, if the defendant appears in any action on a debt or liquidated demand arising on a contract express or implied, a bond or contract under seal for payment of a liquidated amount, etc., the plaintiff may take the same steps for signing summary judgment as are outlined above in the case of a specially endorsed writ in the Supreme Court.

Affidavits.—Affidavit includes affirmation or declaration wherever by law an affirmation may be substituted for an oath or affidavit.

Affidavits to be used in any Court in the Province or authorized to be administered or taken by any law in force therein may be sworn to before a Judge of the Supreme or County Courts or any commissioner for taking affidavits. Where a statute requiring or authorizing an affidavit does not designate a person who shall take the same, such affidavit may be made before a Justice of the Peace for the county where it is made, except where it is to be used in the Supreme Court, County, Divorce or Probate Courts.

Affidavits without the Province for use in the Courts may be sworn to before a commissioner for the Province duly appointed for taking such affidavits, or before the several officials and persons authorized to take the proof or acknowledgment of the execution of any conveyance out of the Province.—See Deeds.

A statutory declaration may be made attesting facts or accounts.

Aliens.—Aliens can now take, hold, and sell real and personal property, with the exception of ships, as if they were native born citizens. When resident within the Province and served with process there, an alien may be sued in its courts; or if the cause of action arises within the Province, though the alien be not resident or served with process there, he may be sued in its courts. Land can be held by a foreign corporation when duly licensed.—See Corporations.

Appeals.—The Supreme Court sitting en banc is the highest Court in the Province, but an appeal can be taken from it to the Supreme Court of Canada, and in certain cases to His Majesty's Privy Council in England.

Arrest.—A writ of capias can be issued on an affidavit of indebtedness, when sum is certain, and by order of a Judge when cause of action is for an unliquidated amount or for damages. There is no arrest for debt after judgment except in the petty courts having jurisdiction under eighty dollars.

Assignment of Insolvent Laws.—There is a Provincial Act respecting assignments and preferences. It makes any assignment with preference void, unless preference be given for present actual bona fide advances of money or goods. It is necessary to assign to the Sheriff of the County unless consent be given by majority in value of creditors, when it may be made to any resident within the Province. The assignment under the act takes precedence of all judgments and of all executions not completely exhausted by payment. It is the duty of the assignee to give notice of meeting to all creditors within five days of date of assignment; such meeting to be held within twelve days after giving notice. The creditors then have an opportunity of directing disposal of estate. Claims must be proved by affidavit. It is the assignee's duty to prepare a statement of accounts, and of his doings as assignee, within one month of the first creditors' meeting, and at intervals of three months thereafter. There is no priority among execution creditors.

Attachments.—Proceedings by way of attachment may be taken against the property of any person severally or any person jointly indebted in the sum of forty dollars above all discounts, who depart from or keep concealed within the Province with intent to defraud his or their creditors. In no other case can an attachment issue until after judgment.—See also Garnishment.

Chattels, Mortgages and Bill of Sale.—Every mortgage or conveyance intended to operate as a mortgage of goods and chattels, which is not accompanied by delivery and an actual and continued change of possession, must be registered within thirty days from date of execution. There must be an affidavit by the witness of the due execution of the mortgage, and of the mortgagee or his agent, that the mortgagor is justly and truly indebted to him in the sum mentioned in the mortgage, that it was executed in good faith and for the express purpose of securing the payment of money justly due, and not for the purpose of protecting the goods mentioned therein against the creditors of the mortgagor or of preventing the creditors of such mortgagor from obtaining payment of any claims against him.

The act also requires a bill of sale to be renewed every year by filing affidavits and statement set forth therein. In default and on thirty days' notice to mortgagee, calling on him to file affidavits, etc., the bill of sale is void as against subsequent purchasers.

Claims Against Estate of Deceased Persons.—No distinction exists between judgment debts and other debts, in administering the estate.

Conditional Sales.—Where condition of the bailment is such that the possession of the chattel passes without any ownership being acquired by the bailee until the payment of the purchase money, it is necessary that the receipt note, hire note, order, or other instrument evidencing such conditional sale, shall be filed in the registry office of the county in which the purchaser resided at the time of the bailment, within fifteen days of the delivery of possession of the chattel mentioned in the agreement, to be valid against subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith for valuable consideration. The manufacturer, bailor, or vendor shall also leave a copy of such receipt, note, hire receipt, order or other instrument by which the lien on the chattel is retained or which provides for a conditional sale with the conditional vendee at time of execution or within twenty days after.

Every manufacturer, bailor, or vendor shall on demand of any creditor or interested person file with the registrar, within twenty days from the making of such demand, a sworn statement of the amount due thereon, and on failure to so file said statement shall forfeit all rights under same as against such creditor or interested person. Also provision in act for sale on breach of conditions. Where the goods and chattels are affixed to the realty without the consent in writing of the owner of the goods and chattels, they shall not be or become part of the realty, but the owner of the realty shall as against the manufacturer, bailor, or vendor, have the right to retain the same upon payment of the amount due and owing thereon.

Corporations.—Companies are incorporated by special act of the legislature, or under provision of "The New Brunswick Joint Stock Companies Act, 1903." Under that act any number of persons, not less than five, may apply for incorporation. A special act of incorporation is necessary for railway and insurance companies, building societies, and similar associations. The applicants for letters patent must give notice of intention to apply for incorporation by publication in the "Royal Gazette" stating: (1) The corporate name; (2) the objects for which incorporation is sought; (3) the chief place of business or office within the Province; (4) the amount of its capital stock, which shall not be less than two thousand dollars actually subscribed, except where the object of incorporation is for a literary, sporting or social club; (5) the numbers of shares, and the name, address, and calling of each of the applicants.

Licensing Extra-Provincial Corporations.—Chapter 18 Con. Stat. 1903 provides for the imposition of an annual tax upon certain corporations therein enumerated as follows: Fire, life, accident, and guarantee insurance companies, express companies, telephone companies, street railway companies, trust, loan, and building companies, telegraph companies, and banks. A Statement is required before May 1st from fire, accident, or guarantee insurance companies of gross premiums and also a report of agencies. A like report of agencies is demanded from banks.

With the exception of companies hereinbefore enumerated, corporations not having gain for their object, and certain other corporations, no extra-provincial corporations can carry on business within the Province unless a license to do so is taken out. Application for same is made to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. The fee is fifty dollars a year where the capital stock does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars; if over one hundred thousand dollars, the fee is one hundred dollars a year.

Taking orders for or selling goods, wares or merchandise by travelers or by correspondence, if the corporation has no resident agent or representative and no office or place of business within the Province, is not deemed a carrying on of business within the meaning of the act. Corporations not required to take out license as above may obtain a license to acquire or dispose of real estate. Corporations that are required to take out a license cannot acquire or hold real or personal property within the Province without being duly licensed.

Deeds.—Deeds may be under seal for registration, acknowledged by the person executing the same, or be proved by the oath of a subscribing witness as follows:—When within the Province may be made before a judge of the Supreme or County Court or a member of the legislative or executive council, or before any registrar of deeds, or any notary public appointed and resident in the Province, and certified under his hand and official seal or before any Justice of the Peace in the county in which the conveyance is to be registered. When without the Province, before any commissioner for taking affidavits under Ch. 36, Cons. Stat., or before any commissioner authorized by the Lord Chancellor to administer oaths in Chancery of England, or before any notary public, certified under his hands and official seal, or before the mayor or chief magistrate of any city, borough, municipality, or town corporate, and certified under the common or corporate seal of such city, or the seal of such mayor or chief magistrate, or before any British Minister, ambassador, consul, vice-consul, etc., exercising his function in any foreign place, or before the Governor of a State, and certified under the hand and seal of office of such minister, consul, etc. Deeds by corporations must be under the corporate seal attested by the proper officer, and the seal, signature, and authority to execute verified by affidavit.

Depositions.—Depositions and commissions are taken without the Province by a commission duly issued by the Court in which the action is pending. Full instructions for taking of the same always accompany it.

Descent.—Real estate is divided equally to and among the children of the intestate, then to the next-of-kin and their representatives.

Personal property is divided as follows:—One-third shall go to the widow of the intestate, and the residue in equal portions to the children, or if dead, to their lineal descendants; if there be no children or legal representative subsisting the widow then takes one moiety, and the other moiety shall go to the next of kindred in equal degree; and if there be neither widow or children, all to next of kin in equal degree, and their representatives.

Divorce.—There is a provincial court having power to grant divorce, or of dissolving and annulling marriages. Divorce is granted for the following causes:—Adultery, consanguinity within the degrees prohibited by Act of Parliament made in 32 Henry VIII., and impotence.

Dower.—A widow is entitled to dower in all real property of her husband.

Executions.—Writs of fieri facias bind the debtor's property from time of their delivery to the sheriff. Concurrent writs may be issued to any county. The debtor's goods must be exhausted before resort can be had to his lands.

Exemptions on Executions.—Wearing apparel, bedding, kitchen utensils, and tools of trade and calling to the value of one hundred dollars.

Garnishment.—Attachment of debts due a judgment debtor in the Supreme Court or County Courts may be made in any action where the amount remaining due on such judgment exceeds the sum of eighty dollars.

Money in the hands of an official or servant of the Crown due or payable by the Crown to an individual and given to such officer for that purpose, is exempt. A judgment debtor may be examined as to his property, when any debts found to be due to him may be garnished, except wages or salary for personal labor and services to the extent of twenty dollars. In no case shall garnishment issue on judgments obtained for debts unless such judgment, independent of costs incurred in the suit, shall exceed forty dollars.

Intestacy.—In case of intestacy, real property passes to the children or their legal representatives, if no children to the next of kindred and their representatives including those of the half blood and their representatives.

Judgments.—Priority of judgments is abolished. A judgment is good for twenty years and a memorial of the same, when placed on record at the registry office, binds lands for five years, but can be renewed while judgment is in force. In case of assignment, judgments only take rank with other claims.

Judgments, foreign.—May be sued on, and if proceedings on which same are recovered were duly served, defendant cannot go into the merits, otherwise he can.

Personal property.—One-third to widow, residue among children and their representatives equally. If none, half to widow and residue amongst next of kin in equal degree and their representatives.

Husband has curtesy, and wife dower in real estate.

Limitations of Personal Actions.—Actions on contract, notes, debts must be commenced within six years after the cause of action arose. Actions for slanders, assault, and battery wounding, and imprisonment shall be commenced within two years. In case of the plaintiff being under disability of infancy, coverture, or lunacy, or being absent from the Province, the time runs from the removal of the disability.

Real Actions.—Action to recover land must be brought within twenty years after the right of action accrues. Where the party is under disability of infancy, lunacy, or absent from the country, then such person or the party claiming through him may, notwithstanding the period of twenty years hereinbefore limited shall have expired, make an entry or bring an action to recover such lands at any time within ten years next after the time at which the person to whom such right shall have first accrued shall have ceased to be under any such disabilities or shall have died. Limitation as against the Crown does not run until sixty years' adverse possession. Persons under the disability of infancy, lunacy, or coverture, or absence from the Province and their representatives, are allowed ten years from the termination of their disability or death, notwithstanding the expiration of the period of twenty years in which to bring the action, but no such action can be brought except within forty years next after the right of action is accrued.

Examination of Judgment Debtor.—A judgment creditor who has recovered judgment in one of the provincial courts may by application to the judge of any county court or Clerk of the Peace obtain an order that the judgment debtor shall be orally examined on oath before such judge or clerk as to any and what property he has which by law is liable to be taken in execution on such judgment, and as to the disposition he has made of his property.

Lien Leases.—See Conditional Sales.

Liens.—A lien is given to mechanics, machinists, labourers, contractors, or other persons doing work upon or furnishing materials to be used in the construction, alteration, or repair of any building or erection, or erecting, furnishing or placing machinery of any kind in, upon, or in connection with any building for the price of the work, machinery, or materials upon such buildings and the lands occupied thereby.

A similar act gives a lien to lumbermen.

Married Women.—A married woman has rights about equal to a feme sole to carry on any business, make contracts, and dispose of her property generally.

Mortgages.—Mortgages must be under seal, and are executed in the same manner as deeds. A mortgage is foreclosed in the equity court, and sold under its decree, which passes all the mortgagor's property in the premises. Mortgaged property is sometimes sold under power of sale, if such power is in the mortgage.

A mortgage is discharged by the registration of a certificate signed by the mortgagee, his assignee or representative, stating that mortgage has been paid; or it may be discharged by mortgagee signing on margin of mortgage registered in office of registrar of deeds, and in his presence, a receipt for the money.

Practice.—This is now regulated by the Judicature Act, cap. 5, 9 Edw. VII., which, with the rules of the Supreme Court 1909 came into force May 1, 1910. The rules conform as far as possible to the English Judicature Rules of 1883 and the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario of 1897.

Proof of Claims.—A Solicitor should be furnished with all the Christian names and surname of the proposed plaintiff. If the claim is contested it must be proved in the usual way or by taking evidence on commission when the witnesses reside abroad.

Recording Deeds, Mortgages, etc.—Every instrument affecting lands, except leases not exceeding three years, where the actual possession goes along with the lease, must be registered in order to be valid against subsequent purchasers for valuable consideration whose conveyances are previously registered.

Replevin.—Whenever any personal property has been wrongly distrained or otherwise wrongly taken or detained, it may be replevied under writ issued, upon the plaintiff giving a bond to the sheriff in double the value of the property.

Reports, Judicial.—The only cases reported are those in the Supreme Court sitting en banc, cited as N. B. R., and reports of the supreme court in equity, starting in 1895.

Taxes.—No provincial law requiring statements to be filed regarding either real or personal estate.

Wills.—Wills must be in writing, signed at the foot or end thereof by the testator (or by some other person in his presence and by his direction), in the presence of two attesting witnesses, both present at the same time, who shall attest and subscribe the will in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other. No form of attestation is necessary.

An executor is a competent witness, but any devise or legacy to a witness or to the husband or wife of a witness is void, though the execution of the will itself is good.

Persons under the age of twenty-one years cannot make a will.

Every will is revoked by marriage except a will made in the exercise of a power of appointment where the estate appointed could not in default of appointment pass to the testator's heirs or next of kin.

NEWFOUNDLAND

SYNOPSIS OF LAWS.

Compiled expressly for the "Canada Legal Directory" by John Fenelon, St. John's, of the Middle Temple and Newfoundland Bar.

Revised to Jan. 1, 1913.

Arrest in Civil Causes—No person can be arrested and held to bail in a civil action except in the following cases: A defendant in an action for $50.00 or upwards may be arrested under warrant at any time after the issue of a writ of summons, upon the filing of an affidavit showing such facts and circumstances as satisfy the Judge that there is good and probable cause for believing that the defendant has made, or is about to make, some disposition of his property or some part thereof, or is about to quit the Colony with intent to defraud his creditors generally or the plaintiff in particular, or is about to quit the Colony, and that his absence will materially prejudice the prosecution of the action, or is possessed of means of payment of which he has control and which he withholds from his creditors. The debtor is held in custody until he shall have made a sufficient deposit or given the Sheriff sufficient security or bail. The plaintiff must proceed to trial within four weeks of the close of the pleadings, unless the Court allows an extension of time. The detaining creditor is chargeable for the maintenance of a debtor while under arrest. Judges and officers of the Supreme Court, members and officers of the Legislature, barristers and solicitors, jurors parties and witnesses in a suit, clergymen and females are privileged from arrest under this section, the privilege being absolute in some cases and qualified in others.

A judgment creditor may have a defendant against whom he has recovered judgment for $50.00 or upwards arrested on Ca. Sa. on filing a similar affidavit.

The Court or Judge may also, on special cause shown by affidavit, order the arrest of a defendant or attachment of his property at any stage of an action, which would formerly have been heard on the Equity side of the Court, until bail shall have been given to abide by and perform the orders of the Court.

Attachment of Debts—At any time after the issue of a writ of summons, the plaintiff may issue a warrant for the attachment of any property of the defendant upon filing an affidavit that the defendant is justly and truly indebted to him in a liquidated amount of $20.00 or upwards, for a cause of action to be set forth in the affidavit. If the debt or damages are unliquidated, an order is necessary and will be made if it is shown upon affidavit that the defendant is about to make some disposition of his property, or sell or otherwise dispose of or remove beyond the jurisdiction of the Court the subject matter of the action. The property so attached can only be released upon security being given by bond or by deposit, or by termination of the suit in the defendant's favour. The plaintiff must proceed to trial within four weeks of the close of the pleadings or such extended time as the Court may allow. Perishable goods may be sold by special order and the proceeds paid into Court. If the attachment is laid in the hands of a third person, such third person may be brought before the Court upon a Garnishee Summons for examination, and payment into Court or delivery to the Sheriff of the debts, goods or effects ordered. No such attachment binds any money accruing due to the defendant on an executory contract after service of the warrant on the Garnishee, nor any money, goods or effects in and over which the defendant had not at the time of service a then present interest and disposing power.

Barristers and Solicitors—The following persons are eligible for Call to the Bar:—(1) Those who have been admitted as students and stand upon the books of the Law Society for the required number of years. In the case of University graduates, three years must elapse between admission as a student and Call; in the case of undergraduates four years, and in all other cases five. (2) English, Irish and Scotch barristers. (3) Colonial barristers from colonies or provinces in which similar privileges are accorded to Newfoundland barristers, and (4) English, Irish, Scotch solicitors (or writers to the signet) and Colonial solicitors from colonies or provinces which reciprocate. In all cases previous admission as a solicitor of the Supreme Court is necessary. To obtain admission as a solicitor, a student must serve under articles with a practising solicitor in the Colony for 3, 4 or 5 years as above, or possess the qualifications mentioned in one or other of classes 2, 3 and 4 above. Particulars as to examinations and fees can be had from the Secretary of the Law Society, St. John's. Women may be admitted as solicitors and called to the Bar.

Bills of Exchange—The local statute is practically a re-enactment of the Imperial Bills of Exchange Act, 1882.

Bills of Sale and Chattel Mortgages—Bills of Sale and mortgages of personal chattels, where the actual possession of such chattels continues in the mortgagor, if unregistered, are void as against (a) a subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration who shall first register his deed; (b) a subsequent and actual attachment and levy, and (c) a trustee in insolvency or under an assignment for the benefit of creditors. Proof of execution must be by affidavit. All deeds are registered at the Registry of Deeds, St. John's.

Companies—The Companies Acts, 1899 to 1908, provide for the incorporation of companies subject to provisions similar, on the whole, to those of the English Companies Acts. Incorporation may also, and in the case of Banking Companies must, be affected by Act of the Legislature. Unregistered partnerships of more than ten are prohibited. Any three persons may incorporate as a company. Liability may be limited by shares or by guarantee, or may be unlimited. Fees for registration are according to a scale contained in the Act, the minimum being $10.00, increasing with the nominal capital or, in the case of a company not having a capital divided into shares, with the number of members. Mortgages and charges created by an incorporated company must be registered. No restrictions are placed upon foreign corporations doing business in the Colony, with the exception of special regulations imposed on Banks, Express Companies, Telegraph and Telephone Companies, Insurance Companies, and Collection Agencies. Provision is made for the winding-up of foreign corporations doing business in Newfoundland by a procedure similar to that followed in winding up local companies.

Courts—The Supreme Court, consisting of a Chief Justice and two Puisne Judges, has unlimited civil and criminal jurisdiction (exclusive of Divorce), and is also a Court of Admiralty under the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890. It is also a Court for the relief of insolvent debtors. The fusion of Law and Equity has been effected by statute on the same lines as in England. An appeal lies from the decision of any Judge to the other two Judges or a full Court; and from a decision of the full Court to the Privy Council in cases where the sum or matter at issue is at least £500 sterling or Involves value to that amount. Circuit Court is held outside of St. John's once a year at dates fixed annually by proclamation.

There are District Courts at St. John's and Harbour Grace. The jurisdiction of the presiding Magistrates is the same as that of the Stipendiaries. The Stipendiary Magistrates throughout the Island have jurisdiction in civil causes, some few causes of action excepted, to the amount of $200.00, and in disputes to any amount concerning wages of labourers in lumbering or mining, of fishery servants and of persons engaged in the seal fishery. There is an appeal to the Supreme Court from decisions involving $20.00 or more. The Magistrates have also an extensive criminal jurisdiction. There is also a Court of Labrador with civil jurisdiction to the amount of $500.00 and an extensive criminal jurisdiction. A Marine Court of Enquiry may be constituted by commission from the Governor when occasion arises. Justices of the Peace have the same powers as in England so far as applicable under local conditions.

The Board of Trade may appoint committees of arbitration to decide matters voluntarily submitted for their decision. If award is in writing, and filed in Supreme Court, execution may issue as upon a judgment.

Crown Lands and Minerals—All Crown Lands are open for purchase, except such as are specially reserved for public purposes. Timber licenses are issued at a bonus per square mile, usually $2.00. There is also payable an annual ground rent of $2.00 per square mile and a royalty upon trees cut down. No license is required to search or prospect for minerals on Crown Lands. The placing of a discovery stake entitles one to a mining license on complying with the terms of the Act.

Dower: A widow has no rights to dower under local law.

Examination of Judgment Debtors—When a judgment or order is for the recovery or payment of money, an order may be had for the examination of the debtor or his agent, or, in the case of a company, of an officer thereof, as to whether any and what debts are owing to the debtor and whether the debtor has any, and what other property or means of satisfying the judgment or order. In the case of any other judgment or order, if any difficulty arises in executing or enforcing it, any party interested may apply for an order for the examination of any party or otherwise as may be just.

Execution—Writs of execution may be issued forthwith in the Supreme Court upon production of judgment or order under which money is payable, unless an order has been made for stay of execution. If the judgment is not for payment of money or costs, or for recovery of land, execution may issue in 14 days, unless otherwise ordered. Writs, if unexecuted, remain in force for one year, but may be renewed from year to year. As between the original parties, execution may issue at any time within six years. After that period and in certain other cases an order granting leave is necessary.

Exemptions—By statute the following property of an execution debtor is free from seizure:—The working tools and implements of trade of any person, his fishing skiff or punt, the necessary cooking apparatus, bedding and wearing apparel of himself and his family. The share or wages of a sealer are not liable to attachment under mesne or final process, except for supplies advanced to him to be paid for out of his share of the proceeds of the voyage.

Foreign Judgments: The principles according to which foreign judgments sought to be enforced in Newfoundland are given effect to or refused recognition are the same as those acted upon by the English Courts in such cases.

Insolvency—A debtor may be declared insolvent by the Supreme Court upon his own or a creditor's petition, and his estate vested in a trustee for distribution amongst his creditors according to law. A Certificate of Insolvency and Final Discharge may be granted to the debtor later by the Court, and is a bar to any claim arising prior to the declaration of insolvency, except in case of fraud. At any time after a petition has been filed and before the estate has been distributed, the Court or a Judge may, on proof that an arrangement by liquidation or for a composition has been entered into by the debtor and two-thirds in number and value of his local creditors and two-thirds of his creditors elsewhere, or of three-fourths of the whole in number and value, dissolve or stay the proceedings in insolvency, and all creditors shall be bound thereby.

Interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum may be allowed on sums or debts due under a written contract or, in certain cases, following upon written notice that interest will be charged. Judgments carry interest at 5 per cent.

Intestacy: Land being a "chattel real" under Newfoundland law devolves as personalty: Thus all property of the intestate vests in the administrator. The course of succession and rights of widows and next of kin, etc., are the same as under the English Statutes of Distribution, except that by the Intestates' Estate Act of 1908 in cases where a man dies intestate and without issue, his whole estate belongs to the widow if not exceeding $2,000; if over that amount she takes $2,000 and her share in the residue is the same as she would have been entitled to before the passing of the act.

Laws—The Common Law of England, as it existed on July 26th, 1832, and so far as the same is not inapplicable from local circumstances nor modified by local statute, is in force. In all cases not provided for by local enactment the Criminal Law of England applies. Amendments and alterations to the same and new criminal enactments of the Imperial Parliament come into force in the Colony after twelve months from the passing thereof. The Governor can pardon criminals and remit fines.

Limitation of Actions—Actions founded on simple contract must be commenced within six years after the cause of action has arisen. Assault, menace, battery, wounding and imprisonment, four years; slander, two years; recovery of land and specialty debts, twenty years. Actions brought by a supplier to recover any amount due by a sealer for supplies, must be brought within six months. Actions for slander imputing unchastity and without special damage, within two months.

Married Women—A married woman may now acquire, hold and dispose of property and contract and sue and be sued in all respects as if she were a feme sole.

Registration of Deeds—The Registry of Deeds is at St. John's. All deeds and other assurances affecting lands or tenements in the Colony, all powers of attorney or substitutions thereof under which the same are executed, and all judgments affecting any interest in or title to land shall be registered, and such registration is notice to all persons claiming an interest in the land subsequent to such registration. Unregistered deeds are void as against a subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration who shall first register his instrument, as against a trustee in insolvency, an assignee or trustee under a conveyance for the benefit of creditors, or as against any creditor who shall have actually seized or levied under attachment or execution. Proof of a deed for registration must be by acknowledgment under oath by all the executing parties from whom an interest passes, or by the oath of a subscribing witness. Deeds may be proved within the Colony before the Registrar of Deeds, a Judge of the Supreme Court, the Deputy Registrar or Clerk, a Commissioner of the Supreme Court, or a Justice of the Peace. They may be proved abroad before a Judge of a Court of Record under the seal of such Court, the Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any city or town under the seal of such city or town, a Notary Public under his official seal, a British Consul or Vice-Consul, or a Commissioner of the Supreme Court of Newfoundland. In all these cases it is unnecessary to prove or certify the signature or official seal.

Wills—Wills must be in writing, and either in the handwriting of the testator and signed by him, or, if not so written and signed, must be signed by the testator in the presence of at least two witnesses, who shall, in his presence, sign the same as witnesses. In case the Will is made by a marksman it must be read over to or by the testator before signature in the presence of the witnesses. Appointments by Will under a power must be made in the same manner. The testator must be at least seventeen years old. Publication is not essential. A husband or wife witnessing a Will, may take any devise or bequest, etc., contained in it if the Will can be sufficiently proved without their being called upon as witnesses. Otherwise they can be admitted as witnesses to prove the Will but the gift fails. A Will is revoked by marriage.

NOVA SCOTIA

SYNOPSIS OF LAWS.

Compiled expressly for the "Canada Legal Directory" by Harris, Henry, Rogers & Harris, Halifax, of the Nova Scotia Bar.

Revised to January 1st, 1913.

Administration of an estate of an intestate is invariably in the hands of the Court of Probate although the Supreme Court has jurisdiction in an action for administration brought by a creditor to administer in that Court.

The widow and next of kin must renounce their rights to administer the estate before a creditor can be appointed. An administrator is required to file a bond in two sureties, also an inventory of both realty and personalty. The payment of the funeral expenses of a deceased insolvent, the wages of servants and rent for not more than one year have priority in payment over claims of creditors, who are paid pro rata.

Affidavits.—May be sworn within the Province, for use in the Supreme or County Courts, before a Commissioner of the Supreme Court appointed by the Government for that purpose, or before any Barrister of the Supreme Court. Affidavits may be sworn without the Province before a Judge of a Court of Record, British Consul, Notary Public or Commissioner authorized to administer oaths out of the Province, duly appointed by the Governor of the Province.

Arrest.—Where plaintiff makes an affidavit setting out a good cause of action, and that he has probable cause for believing and does believe that the defendant is about to leave the Province, a Judge or Commissioner without requiring the grounds of belief to be stated, may issue an order that the defendant be forthwith arrested and held to bail.

The defendant is entitled to his release on depositing the amount at issue or on giving security by bond with sureties.

Assignments.—By Chapter 145, Revised Statutes, entitled "The Assignment Act," preferential assignments are abolished, and declaring that a confession of judgment, any transfer of property or other transaction which has the effect of hindering or delaying creditors is invalid. Under the Act an assignment must be made to the official assignee appointed by the Government of the Province. There must be a division pro rata of all the debtor's property amongst the creditors. Meetings of the creditors are provided for by the Act. At such meetings all questions are decided by a majority of the votes of creditors calculated as follows: For every claim of over $100 and not exceeding $200, one vote; for every claim of over $200 and not exceeding $500, two votes; for every claim of over $500 and not exceeding $1,000, three votes; for every additional $1,000 or fraction thereof, one vote. Creditors in proving claims must state whether they hold security. Chattel mortgages, confession of judgment and transfers and conveyances of every kind whether of real or personal property if given to a creditor by a person in insolvent circumstances are presumed to be given with the intent to give that creditor an unjust preference within the meaning of the statute if attacked within sixty days from their date, or if followed by an assignment by the debtor for the benefit of his creditors made within sixty days thereafter. An assignment under this statute takes precedence over prior executions and attachments where the money has not actually been paid over.

Attachments.—Property of debtor absconding from the Province may be attached by creditor. The writ of summons may be in the usual form, but must describe the debtor as absent from the Province. Plaintiff must make an affidavit showing a cause of action for an amount within the jurisdiction of Court, stating amount of debt or damage and that the defendant is absent or absconding from the Province. The sum sworn to must be endorsed on the writ of attachment. Sheriff can then levy for sum so sworn to with $120 for probable costs, if the amount is upwards of $80; and for $28 in actions for less. Perishable goods may be sold under order of the Court unless defendant or his agent gives security for their value within three days after appraisalment.

Barristers and Solicitors.—A barrister, attorney or solicitor of any Superior Court in Great Britain or Ireland or in His Majesty's Colonies is entitled to be admitted to practice in Nova Scotia on producing evidence that he is such barrister, attorney or solicitor, that he is of good moral character, and of good standing, and in the case of a barrister or solicitor from a Colonial Court, and a solicitor from a Court in the United Kingdom, he must also produce evidence with regard to his length of service as an articulated clerk and must also pass the usual final examination in Nova Scotia. Barristers of any Superior Court of any British Dominion in which Nova Scotia Barristers may be admitted on producing evidence of admission and good standing, are entitled to admission as barristers of the Province on similar evidence.

Bills of Sale and Chattel Mortgages.—Must be filed in the Registry of Deeds for the registration district wherein the grantor resides, or if non-resident then in the district in which the chattels are located, accompanied by an affidavit from the grantor that the amount therein is due and owing to the grantee, and that the bill of sale of chattel mortgage is not made for the purpose of protecting the property of the grantor from any claims his creditors may have against him. Such affidavit must be sworn before a Notary Public or Commissioner of the Supreme Court. The prescribed form of affidavit should be followed. A bill of sale or chattel mortgage takes priority only from the time of the filing thereof, and must be renewed within thirty days of the expiration of three years from the date of filing. (Chapter 142, Revised Statutes.)

Claims Against Estates of Deceased Persons.—Executors or administrators of the estates of deceased persons shall, by advertisement in the "Royal Gazette" newspaper, call upon all persons having claims against the estate of the deceased to file the same within one year from the date of the advertisement, duly attested by the party, or, in his absence from the Province, by his agent, before the Judge or Registrar of Probate for the County or Justice of the Peace. The affidavit shall be in the following form:

A. B., of _____, in the County of _____, maketh oath and saith that the foregoing paper writing doth contain a true and correct account of his demand against the estate of C. D., late of _____, in the County of _____, Province of Nova Scotia, deceased, and that all credits to which the deceased was honestly and justly entitled, so far as deponent believes, have been given on said account, and that the balance of _____ is justly and truly owing to deponent.

Sworn before me at _____ this _____ day of _____
A.D. 19 _____

(Signed) A. B.

Collection Act.—Is the procedure for the collection of debts after judgment. Where Sheriff can find no personal property of debtor on which to levy, plaintiff or his solicitor or agent makes an affidavit setting out the judgment, and that it is still unsatisfied and to what amount, and the name and address of debtor, and that he has endeavoured to procure satisfaction of the judgment by execution directed against the personal property of the debtor and has been unable to obtain satisfaction thereof. A Judge or Commissioner then issues an Order for the appearance before him of the debtor for examination by the creditor or his solicitor as to his means, present or prospective, of paying the judgment. If the evidence shows that the debtor is in receipt of such an income as will enable him to pay the debt by instalments, then an order is made accordingly. If it is shown that the debt was fraudulently contracted, or that the credit was obtained under false pretences, or that the debtor contracted the debt without having any reasonable expectation of being able to pay, or that the debtor has made any fraudulent disposition of his property, or in cases of tort that the tort was wilful or malicious, the Judge or Commissioner before whom the examination is held may, by his warrant, commit the debtor to jail for a period not exceeding twelve months. The Collection Act applies to all judgments, whether obtained in the Magistrate's, County or Supreme Courts.

Under this Act imprisonment for debt is abolished except as above referred to; but should a Judge or Commissioner make an order that the debtor pay the debt by instalments and the debtor fails to pay any or all of such instalments, he may be committed to jail for disobedience of the order. The Judge or Commissioner may also, at the conclusion of such examination, direct that the debtor execute an assignment to the creditor of all his real and personal property.

Courts, Jurisdiction and Practice.—Supreme Court of Nova Scotia (the High Court of Justice). Actions are commenced by writ of summons. In all causes of action where the amount claimed is below $80 and over $20 the action may be commenced in the County Court. All causes of action where the amount claimed is over $800 must be brought in the Supreme Court, and in all exceeding $20 and under $800 it is optional with the plaintiff to bring his action in either the County or Supreme Court. The Supreme Court has also jurisdiction to try and dispose of all actions brought therein, even when it appears that the cause of action does not exceed $20. This virtually gives the Supreme Court jurisdiction over all summary matters concurrent with that of the County Court. Costs, however, are the same as are taxable in the County Court.

If the plaintiff in any action resides out of the Province of Nova Scotia he may be compelled, if the defendant contests the suit, to give security for the defendant's costs. The security may be a bond executed by two persons residing in the Province or by cash deposit in Court to abide the result of the suit, or bond of approved guarantee company doing business in the Province. If the debt sued on is a liquidated demand, i.e., a sum certain, the writ may, at the option of the plaintiff, be specially indorsed with particulars of plaintiff's claim. After service of a specially indorsed writ, the defendant has twenty days within which to file his defence, and the plaintiff has a further twenty-one days after service of the defence to put in his reply.

If the action is not a jury cause it may be set down at once before a Judge in Chambers. If a defendant appears to a writ specially indorsed, and the plaintiff or any one on his behalf makes an affidavit, swearing positively to the debt or cause of action, the plaintiff may apply for final judgment on giving four days' notice to the defendant. The Court on such an application may make an order that the plaintiff have judgment for his claim and costs forthwith.

Deeds.—All deeds, grants, judgments, attachments and other documents affecting land must be registered in the registration district in which the land affected is situated, and only take effect as against third parties from the time of their registration. Deeds and mortgages must be executed under seal and in the presence of a witness. A deed or mortgage may be proved within the Province by oath of witness taken before the Registrar, a Judge of the Supreme Court, a Notary Public, a Justice of the Peace, or a barrister of the Supreme Court. Out of the Province a deed or mortgage may be proved by oath of subscribing witness or acknowledgment of parties under oath. Such oath can be taken before a Judge of any Court of Record, by the Mayor of any Town, by Notary Public or by a Commissioner appointed to administer affidavits without the Province. Where the deed is to be proved in a foreign country, the oath must be taken and the attestation with the date certified under the hand and seal of any Public Minister, Ambassador, Consul, or Vice-Consul of Great Britain.

Descent of Real and Personal Property.—Real Estate. When a person dies intestate, any real estate to which he may be entitled at the time of his death shall descend as follows:

1. In equal shares to children and issue of deceased children according to the right of representation. If no children living, to his other lineal descendants, who shall share equally, if in same degree, otherwise according to the right of representation.

2. If no issue, one-half to father, one-half to widow in lieu of dower; if no widow, the whole to father.

3. If no issue nor father, one-half to widow, one-half in equal shares to mother, brothers and sisters, and the children of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation.

4. If none of foregoing, in equal shares to the next of kin in equal degree, excepting where two or more collateral kindred in equal degree but claiming through different ancestors; those claiming through nearest ancestor shall be preferred, but in no case shall representatives be admitted among collaterals after brother's and sister's children.

5. If person deceased, unmarried and under age, estate inherited from either parent goes to children of same parent and issue equally, if of same degree, otherwise according to right of representation; if no children of same parent, to all the issue of the other children of the same parent equally, if in the same degree, otherwise according to right of representation. Degrees of kindred computed by civil law and kindred of half blood inherit equally with those of whole blood in same degree.

Personal property descends in the same way except that after the payment of debts, funeral expenses, etc., one-third goes to the widow, if any. The widow is allowed all her paraphernalia, wearing apparel, etc., sustenance for family for ninety days after death of husband.

See "Administration" and "Wills."

Dower.—A wife is entitled to dower out of all lands (with a few exceptions) of which her husband was seized at and after her marriage in which she did not bar dower during his lifetime. A husband can be tenant by the curtesy only of such of his wife's lands as she died seized.

Foreign Judgment.—A plaintiff may sue in a Nova Scotia Court on a foreign judgment, but a defendant may raise in defence any plea which he could have raised in the jurisdiction in which the judgment was obtained.

Imprisonment for Debt.—Imprisonment for debt has been abolished. The exceptions to this are for disobedience to an order for payment of instalments made under the Collection Act (see Collection Act); where the defendant is about to leave the Province (see Arrest); where a judgment is against a defaulting trustee; or in respect of a penalty or other payment.

Interest.—Rate allowed by law 6 per cent. Special contract may be made for any rate not exceeding 7 per cent., where security, or for any rate not exceeding 10 per cent., where security is personality.

Intestacy.—See Descent of Real and Personal Property.

Judgment and Execution.—Execution may issue against defendant after judgment. A judgment binds the real estate of defendant from the time of registration thereof in the Registry of Deeds, and after the lapse of one year from the registration of such judgment execution may issue thereon for the sale of defendant's real estate. An execution issued on a judgment binds personal property of defendant from time of levy, and such property may be sold immediately at Sheriff's sale. All personal property of defendant may be seized under execution except certain articles enumerated in Rule 40, Order XL. of the Judicature Act, such as necessary wearing apparel, household furniture to a certain value, food 30 days for debtor and family, certain live stock and food therefor, and tools and implements of debtor's trade or occupation.

Limitation of Actions.—Certain torts, one year. Simple contracts, six years. Contract under seal and actions to recover land, moneys secured by mortgage, judgment, lien, or chargeable upon land or rent or legacy, twenty years. Time runs from last payment or acknowledgment, if any.

Married Woman's Property.—(Chap. 11, Revised Statutes). Married woman may hold separate estate, do business in her own name, sue and defend as feme sole, provided a written consent or license of her husband has been filed at the proper registration district specifying her intended business and the address at which she intends to carry it on.

Mortgages.—(See Deeds.) Foreclosed by action in Supreme Court.

Notes and Bills of Exchange.—Chap. 119, R.S. Canada 1906.

Practice.—Judicature Act. Practically the same as in England.

Proof of Claims.—Names of claimant and debtor should be sent to solicitor with claims for collection, together with all correspondence, documents and full particulars of claim. If the claim is on a negotiable instrument, bond or agreement the instrument itself should be forwarded.

Wills.—Must be in writing and signed at foot by testator in the presence of two witnesses, who shall sign as such in the presence of testator and each other. No person under twenty-one years of age can make a will. Where a testator dies owning real estate, will should be recorded in Registry of Deeds same as deed or mortgage.

A married woman may make her will without husband's consent, provided that if will is made without the husband's consent he may elect between his rights under the will and his right as tenant by the curtesy. Change of domicile does not revoke a will. Marriage revokes a prior will unless under a power of appointment. Succession duty is payable to the Government on property situated within the Province valued at $5,000 or upwards after payment of debts and expenses of administration.

ONTARIO

SYNOPSIS OF LAWS.

Compiled expressly for the "Canada Legal Directory" by Johnston, McKay, Dods & Grant, Barristers, Toronto, of the Ontario Bar.

Revised to Jan. 1, 1913.

Actions and Parties—Actions may be brought by and in the name of a trustee or any person to whom the cause of action has been assigned, except actions for damages; and all persons liable—no matter in what manner—may be sued in the same action.

Absconding Debtor—Arrest for Debt—Any person indebted in a sum exceeding $100.00, may be arrested if about to leave Ontario with the intent to defraud his creditors

Affidavits may be sworn in a foreign country before a Notary Public, a Judge of a Court of Record, or a Commissioner appointed by the High Court of Justice to take affidavits for use in Ontario. Where the officer taking the affidavit has a seal, it should be affixed.

Attachments—See Absconding Debtor.

Assignments for Benefit of Creditors—A debtor who is unable to pay his debts as they become due may make an assignment for the general benefit of his creditors, to the Sheriff of the county in which he resides, or with the consent of the majority of his creditors, to any other person, who must be a resident of Ontario. The assignment should be filed within five days with the Clerk of the County Court in which the debtor resides. The assignor may be examined as to the disposition of any of his assets and as to his affairs generally, in the same manner in which the judgment debtor may be examined, upon resolution of the creditors or of the inspectors of the estate appointed by the creditors. Creditors may be required to prove their claims by affidavit to be filed with the assignee. A creditor must value any security which he has received or holds upon any part of the debtor's estate, and the assignee may take over this security at the amount of the valuation, plus ten per cent. in addition thereto.

Bankruptcy—There is no bankruptcy law in force in Ontario, and a debtor making an assignment for the general benefit of his creditors is discharged pro tanto to the extent of the dividend paid by the assignee of his estate to his creditors, but not to any greater extent.

Bills and Notes—Three days' grace are allowed except where the document is expressed to the contrary or when payable on demand. Any rate of interest not exceeding 12 per cent. per annum where the amount is under $500.00, and any rate where the amount exceeds $500.00 may be charged. If no rate is fixed, the legal rate, 5 per cent., can be collected from maturity. A lost bill or note may be sued upon, but the defendant may demand a satisfactory indemnity in respect of being again called upon to pay the same note in the hands of some innocent purchaser.

Chattel Mortgages may be given on goods and chattels either for a present advance or to secure a past debt. It must be registered within five days of execution and must be renewed yearly by the filing of an affidavit and a statement exhibiting the payments made thereon and the balance due.

Costs—A plaintiff out of Ontario may be required to give security for costs of an action brought here. In Division Court actions such security may be ordered as the Judge thinks requisite, usually from five to twenty-five dollars. In County Court actions, by depositing one hundred dollars in Court, or by giving a bond of a Surety Company within Ontario, or of two other sufficient sureties within Ontario in two hundred dollars. In High Court actions double the security required in a County Court action. Additional security may be ordered by the Court if the costs are likely to exceed the amount of security already given.

Commissions—Evidence may be taken out of Ontario for use in Ontario upon commission, to be taken before some officer appointed by order of the Court in which the action is pending.

Conditional Sales of Chattels—Chattels may be leased or sold conditionally, the title not to pass, although the purchaser is entrusted with possession, until the full price is paid. The contract must be in writing, signed by the purchaser, and a copy thereof delivered to him within twenty days from the making thereof. If the name and address of the bailor or vendor is painted or stamped upon the chattel, the contract need not be registered; otherwise it must be registered in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of the county where the purchaser resides. If the chattels are affixed to the real property, the owner or mortgagee of the property may retain possession of the chattel upon paying the balance of the price.

Courts—Claims on open account where the original amount of the account has not exceeded $600.00, and where the balance sought to be recovered is $100.00 or under, and claims on promissory notes, bills of exchange, etc., up to $200.00, and for damages up to $60.00, may be sued in the Division Court. Claims or accounts, notes, etc., up to $800.00, and for damages up to $500.00, may be sued in the County Court. All other actions must be brought in the High Court of Justice.

Evidence—All parties, whether interested in the cause of action or not, are competent witnesses.

Examination of Judgment Debtor—In Division Court cases the defendant may be examined before the Judge of the Court in which the judgment is standing as to his property and his ability to pay the amount of the judgment, and an order for payment by instalments may be made against the debtor. In case of his refusal, where the Judge thinks he is able to pay, the debtor may be committed to jail for contempt. In County and High Court actions the judgment debtor may be examined as to what property he possesses, or as to what disposition he has made of any property, but cannot be ordered to pay the judgment by instalments.

Execution may issue against the goods and chattels and lands and tenements of the debtor after judgment. In Division Courts fourteen days after trial, but on default judgments, execution can issue at once.

Exemptions—The necessary wearing apparel, bedding, furniture, forty dollars worth of provisions, one cow, and other articles mentioned in the Act are exempt from execution.

Fraudulent Conveyances—Conveyances made by debtors when insolvent, if attacked within sixty days, or if the debtor assigns within sixty days, are prima facie void.

Garnishment of Debts—In Division Court actions garnishment proceedings may be commenced at the same time that the action is brought. In County Court and High Court actions debts and moneys owing the debtor can only be attached or garnished after judgment.

Interest—(See Bills and Notes).

Intestate Estates—1. Where husband dies intestate without issue, the widow takes $1,000.00 and one half the balance, the remainder goes to the father, mother, brothers and sisters (or children of brothers and sisters per stirpes), in equal shares; failing these, to heirs at law of husband.

2. Where husband dies leaving issue and widow, one third to widow, two thirds to child or equally among children.

3. Where husband dies leaving child or children and no widow, all to child or children equally.

4. Where wife dies leaving husband and no children, half to husband, balance to father, mother, brothers and sisters of deceased in equal shares.

5. Where wife dies leaving husband and child or children, one third to husband, balance to child or children equally.

6. Where intestate dies unmarried and without issue, the father, mother, brothers and sisters take equally, the child or children of any brother or sister deceased taking the parent's share. Failing these, then to his other heirs at law.

7. Paternal ancestors take in priority to maternal ancestors.

Judgments—A judgment binds both real and personal property from the date of its being placed in the hands of the Sheriff. Writs of execution must be renewed every three years.

Judgments, Foreign—Actions may be brought in Ontario on an exemplification of a foreign judgment issued from the Court in which the judgment was recovered under its seal; and if the defendant has defended the action in the foreign jurisdiction, he cannot raise the same defence in Ontario.

Limitation of Actions—Simple contract debts are statute barred after six years from the time when the cause of action arose, or from last acknowledgment in writing signed by the debtor, or from the last payment on account. Contracts under seal in twenty years. The right to recover possession of land after ten years' adverse possession.

Liens—Mechanics and wage-earners and persons furnishing materials in the construction of buildings, works, etc., upon any land may register a lien against the land for their claim within thirty days from the time the right to register the lien arose, and is enforceable by sale of the debtor's property.

Married Women may hold both real and personal property free from any rights, debts or obligations of the husband; may purchase, acquire and dispose of her estate as if she were unmarried, and may sell to or buy from her husband without the intervention of a trustee. It has recently been held by the House of Lords in Bank of Montreal vs. Stewart, that in order to become bound as surety for an obligation of her husband, she must have independent legal advice. She may be sued and judgment recovered against her, to be satisfied out of any separate estate which she possessed at the time of the judgment or which she may thereafter possess.

Mining—In order to prospect for mines or hold mining claims, a Miner's License must be obtained from the Bureau of Mines or from the Recorder of a Mining Division. Mining claims are usually forty acres in extent. For general information see Mining Act of Ontario.

Registry of Deeds—All deeds affecting any land should be registered in the registry office of the county in which the lands are situate.

Widow—If the husband dies intestate, the widow takes a third of his property absolutely, or takes one-third of all the property undisposed of by his will if there be issue, and one-half if there be none. The husband may dispose of all his property by will, but cannot take away from the wife her right to dower; that is, a one-third interest for life in his real estate.

Wills—Any person of the age of twenty-one years may make a Will, which must be in writing, signed at the foot or end thereof with the proper signature of the testator, and must be made in the presence of two witnesses who shall each sign his or her name to the Will as a witness thereto. Any person witnessing a Will cannot take any legacy or bequest thereunder, but an executor may be a witness. A Will is revoked by the marriage of the maker unless the Will expressly declares that it is made in contemplation of marriage, and in two or three other excepted cases.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

SYNOPSIS OF LAWS.

Compiled expressly for the "Canada Legal Directory" by McLeod & Bentley, Charlottetown, of the Prince Edward Island Bar.

Revised to January 1st, 1913.

Absent Debtors—A non-resident debtor, if found in the Province, may be arrested upon an affidavit of debt being made shewing that he is a non-resident. The property of an absent or absconding debtor may be attached upon affidavit being made of the debt and of the fact that the debtor is so absent or absconding. An absent debtor may be served with a Writ of Summons issued out of the Supreme Court, and the plaintiff may proceed to judgment upon satisfying the Court by affidavit that there is a cause of action which arose within the jurisdiction, or that the action is in respect of the breach of a contract made within the jurisdiction, and on proof of the service of the Writ. A Writ of Summons against a foreign corporation which may enter into a contract or transact any business in the Province may be served upon its manager, agent or sub-agent, within the Province, or upon the person who transacts, negotiates or solicits any business on behalf of such corporation within the Province. (See also Courts).

Actions—(See Courts).

Administrations of Estates—There is one Surrogate and Probate Court for the Province, with office at Charlottetown. In this Court letters of probate and administration are granted and estates of deceased persons usually administered. In cases of intestacy, administration may be granted to the widow or next of kin; or if they neglect applying for letters of administration for thirty days after the death of the intestate, administration may be granted to a creditor after first citing the widow and next of kin and their refusing to administer. Claims should be proved against the estate within eight months after letters testamentary have been taken out, as after that time the executor, on being sued, may plead specially that he had no notice of the debt, and that he has applied the assets in his hands in payment of the debts proved against the estate and of which he had notice. If the personalty is insufficient to pay debts, executor or administrator may, by leave of the Surrogate, sell the real estate. Estates of deceased persons may also be administered in the Court of Chancery, in which Court lands are assets for the payment of debts in the event of the personal property of the deceased being insufficient. (See Taxes).

Affidavits—Affidavits to be made abroad may be sworn before a Judge of a Court of Record, or of a Superior Court, or of a County Court, or before a British Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent, or before the Mayor of any City or Town, or before a Notary Public, or before a Commissioner authorized to administer oaths out of the Province, duly appointed by the Government of the Province.

Aliens—Previous to confederation (A.D. 1873), aliens might hold real estate not exceeding 200 acres. Now, by Dominion Statute, aliens may hold real and personal property of every description the same as natural-born British subjects, and succession may be traced through aliens; but an alien is not eligible for any public office. Aliens may be summoned to defend suits in this Province in certain cases. (See Courts).

Arrest—A resident debtor can not be arrested by process out of Supreme Court, except by Judge's order, to be made on affidavit on proof of debt, and showing facts and circumstances to satisfy Judge that there is good and probable cause for believing that debtor, unless forthwith apprehended, is about to quit the Province with intent to defraud creditor or creditors. Non-resident debtor, if found in the Province, may be arrested upon an affidavit of debt being made showing that he is a non-resident. Capias from County Court may issue for any sum over $8 and not over $150, upon an affidavit being made of amount of debt and of belief that debtor is about to depart from the Province to evade payment of his debts.

Assignments—(See Insolvency).

Attachments—The property of an absent or absconding debtor may be attached upon affidavit being made of the debt and of the fact that debtor is so absent or absconding. Property of a resident debtor, except debts, etc. (see Garnishment), can not be seized or attached until after judgment.

Banks—The agent or manager of any bank established abroad carrying on business in this Province is to be assessed and taxed on the average volume of business done here. (See Interest, Corporations).

Bills of Sale and Deeds of Trust—Absolute bills of sale or transfer of chattels are void (except as between grantor and grantee) unless grantee forthwith, upon execution thereof, take actual possession of chattels and grantor ceases to have possession. Chattel mortgage requires to be registered and to have an affidavit endorsed, made by the grantee or his agent, to the effect that grantor is really indebted to the grantee in the amount expressed in the mortgage, or that a consideration of nature and amount therein expressed really and truly exists, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief the mortgage was not executed for the purpose or with the intent of protecting the property therein described from creditors of the grantor, or of defrauding the creditors of the grantor or any of them. Statutes of Elizabeth (13 Eliz. chap. 5, and 27 Eliz. chap. 4) are in force. Chattel mortgages or other conveyances or transfers (except such as are given for a present, actual bona fide payment or advance of money, or made in consideration of any present, actual bona fide sale or delivery of goods or other property) are void if given by a debtor in insolvent circumstances with intent to give an undue preference over other creditors or to prejudice or delay any of his creditors.

Corporations may be created by special Dominion or Provincial statute, or by letters patent issued under the Dominion or Provincial Companies Acts. The liability of shareholders is usually limited to the amount of shares subscribed, and when the shares are paid in full, shareholders are discharged from further liability. Foreign corporations may do business in the Province and may bring action in the Courts as if incorporated within the Province. Certain taxes are imposed upon foreign insurance and other companies transacting business within the Province.

Courts—For the recovery of debts, County Courts have jurisdiction where debt does not exceed $150. Judge tries all cases without a jury, and no solicitors' or attorneys' fees are allowed. Sixteen circuits are established throughout the Province, at each of which a Court is held in August, October, December and March. A judgment in the County Court can not affect land or title to land. Supreme Court has jurisdiction in all actions at common law (except that no action can be brought for debt when the amount is under $32). All actions are commenced by Writ of Summons. When claim is for a liquidated amount or debt, summons may be specially endorsed, and if defendant (resident in Province) fails to appear within eight days after service, judgement by default may be entered and execution may issue in fourteen days after last day for appearance. Summons may be served on a British subject residing out of the Province in respect of the cause of action arising within jurisdiction or in respect of a breach of a contract made within the jurisdiction. Proceedings in like cases may be brought against any person residing out of Province though not a British subject, but instead of a summons being served upon him he is served with a notice of the summons having been issued. In these cases time for appearance will be regulated according to distance from Province. Upon the minute of a judgment in Supreme Court being filed, such judgment binds all interest in land then held by defendant, and also such as he may acquire until judgment is paid. Such judgment will take priority over a subsequent deed or mortgage, and against a previous deed or mortgage but registered subsequently. A Chancery Court also exists, having full equitable jurisdiction.

Creditors' Bills—There is no statute authorizing a creditors' bill for general discovery and in aid of common law execution, but statutes enable a judgment creditor to examine the judgment debtor on oath before a judge touching his estate and effects, and as to the disposition he has made of his property since the debt on which judgment was recovered was contracted, and as to what property he still has and what debts may be owing to him. Proceedings to annul fraudulent conveyances by a debtor may be taken by bill in equity under the English Statutes of Elizabeth. Conveyances and securities made or given by a debtor in insolvent circumstances with intent to give a preference to one or more creditors over other creditors may be impeached and annulled under a Provincial statute. A creditor may also file a bill in equity for administration of the estate of a deceased debtor. (See Insolvency).

Debtor—(See Absent Debtor).

Deeds, Mortgages and Conveyances of real property must be made under seal and should be registered in order to prevent a later grantee or encumbrancer from obtaining priority by prior registration. The execution of deeds must be proved before registry by the acknowledgment of the grantor or by the oath of a witness before the proper officer, and his certificate of such acknowledgment indorsed thereon. Commissioners for taking such acknowledgments to deeds are appointed, and where there is no such Commissioner, the execution of the deed may be proved before a Notary Public, certified under his official seal. A married woman of full age may convey her interest in land by deed executed with her husband and a proper acknowledgment apart from her husband before a Justice of the Peace or a Notary Public, that same was signed by her of her own free will and consent had without any compulsion, and that she was aware of the nature of the contents thereof. Any separate property of a married woman acquired since 1896 may be disposed of by her as if she were not married. Powers of Attorney, executed by a married woman, authorizing another to convey land, must describe the land to be conveyed with asufficient certainty. No more than one witness is necessary to the execution of any deed unless same is executed in pursuance of a power of appointment specially directing more than one witness to be necessary. A wife should join her husband in conveying land in order to bar her right of dower. (See Dower).

Depositions may be made by oath or by affirmation, or solemn declaration. Witnesses abroad may have their evidence in an action taken by commission before a Commissioner to be appointed by the Judge or Court who grants the order for commission. Witnesses within the Province who are sick, aged or infirmed, may give evidence in an action on commission on a proper application being made for the purpose. (See Affidavits).

Descent and Distribution of Property—In cases of intestacy land (subject to widow's right of dower) is divided among all children or their legal representatives in equal shares, and in case there be no children, or their representatives, then to the next of kin in equal degree, but no representation admitted among collaterals after brothers' and sisters' children. If, after death of a father, any of his children die intestate without wife or child in the life time of the mother, every brother and sister of the intestate shall have an equal share with her. When a brother and sister of the whole blood and a brother and sister of the half blood shall be such next of kin, the distribution shall be confined to the brother and sister of the whole blood. When the next of kin shall be a brother or sister and a grandfather or grandmother, distribution shall be confined to the brother or sister or the representatives of them.

The father may be heir to his child dying without issue, and shall be preferred as heir to such child before a brother or sister of such child. Personal estate (after payment of all debts) is distributed as follows: One third to widow and residue in equal proportions amongst children and those legally representing them; if no children or representatives, then one half to widow and residue amongst next of kin. No representation amongst collaterals after brothers' and sisters' children.

Dower—A wife is entitled to dower by the common law, and by statute the right is extended so as to attach to the husband's equitable estate of inheritance in possession and to estates partly legal and partly equitable. She is also entitled to dower when the husband was entitled to a right of entry or action in any land in which she would have had dower had he recovered possession thereof. Where a wife of unsound mind has a right of dower in her husband's land, the land may be sold freed from her dower by order of a Judge of the Supreme Court.

Executions—Goods of defendant are bound by an execution out of Supreme Court from time same is placed in Sheriff's hands. An execution from County Court does not affect defendant's goods until same are actually levied on. Land may be sold under an execution issued out of Supreme Court after six months notice of such sale in manner provided by statute.

Foreign Corporations—(See Absent Debtors, Corporations).

Foreign Judgments—The record of a judgment against a resident of this Province, obtained in any other Province or Country, is not conclusive evidence in any suit to be brought on such judgment within this Island, of the correctness of such judgment, but the defendant may dispute the facts or cause of action upon which such judgment is found as fully as if such foreign judgment had never been given.

Garnishment—All sums of money, whether liquidated or unliquidated, payable to a debtor for any cause of action other than personal torts or wrongs, can be attached by a creditor either before or after judgment.

Insolvency—Although the Dominion Parliament has jurisdiction to pass a general law applicable to the Provinces in cases of bankruptcy or insolvency, no such law now exists. By a statute of the Province, when a debtor is in insolvent circumstances or unable to pay his debts in full, or knows himself to be on the eve of insolvency and voluntarily confesses a judgment in favour of a creditor, or makes any gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer, delivery, or payment of goods or chattels, or of bills, shares, or other property, real or personal, with intent to defeat, hinder, delay, or prejudice any of his creditors, or with intent to give any of his creditors an unjust preference over his other creditors, such confession of judgment, deed, gift, conveyance, payment, etc., shall, as against his creditors who are prejudiced, delayed, or hindered, be utterly void; such transaction, if impeached within sixty days, shall be presumed to be made with such intentions, if the effect of such transaction is to give to a creditor a preference over others and whether the grantee has any knowledge of the grantor's insolvency or of his intent or not. This does not, however, invalidate any gift, conveyance, assignment, or delivery of any property or any security executed bona fide for a present actual bona fide payment in money, or for a present actual bona fide sale or delivery of property, if the money or property so paid, sold, or delivered bear a reasonable value to the consideration therefor. A debtor may make a general assignment for the general benefit of his creditors, rateably and without prejudice.

Intestacy.—See "Administration of Estates," and "Descent and Distribution of Property."

Liens—Lien notes and hire receipts given for manufactured goods or chattels (except household furniture, which, however, does not include pianos, organs, or other musical instruments) are not valid against subsequent purchasers or mortgagees, without notice for valuable consideration, unless at the time possession is given to the bailee the name and address of the manufacturer, bailor, or vendor of the same is printed, stamped, or engraved thereon, or otherwise plainly attached thereto. But this does not invalidate any note, receipt, or instrument evidencing the bailment or conditional sale, which is filed within ten days from its execution with the Prothonotary of the Court in the County in which the bailee or purchaser resides.

Limitations—On simple contracts suits must be commenced within six years from time that debt falls due, or from the date of the last payment on account of such debt. A promise or acknowledgment in writing, signed by the debtor, is sufficient to take simple contracts out of the statute, and time will then begin to run from the date of such written promise or acknowledgment. Actions to recover any sums of money secured by any mortgage, judgment or lien, or otherwise chargeable out of any land, must be brought within twenty years next after a present right to receive the same shall have accrued to some person capable of giving a discharge for the same, unless in the meantime some part of the principal money or interest thereon shall have been paid, or some acknowledgment of the right thereto shall have been given in writing by the person by whom the same shall be payable, or his agent, and in such case within twenty years from the last of such payments or acknowledgments.

Married Woman—Married woman is capable of acquiring, holding, and disposing of any real or personal property in the same manner as if she were a femme sole, and may enter into contracts, and may render herself liable in respect and to the extent of her separate property.

Taxes—The real and personal property of a deceased person, if exceeding $3,000.00, are subject to a succession duty varying from one and a half per cent. to seven and a half per cent., according to the amount of the estate, and to what parties it passes. Companies with head-office without the Province doing business here as stock-brokers, pay a tax of one hundred and fifty dollars a year. (See Banks, Corporations).

Wills—Wills must be signed in presence of two witnesses present at the same time, who shall, in presence of a testator and in the presence of each other sign their names as witnesses. A witness to a Will can take no benefit under it, but an executor named in Will may be a witness.

QUEBEC

SYNOPSIS OF LAWS.

Compiled expressly for the "Canada Legal Directory" by McLennan, Howard & Aylmer, Montreal, of the Quebec Bar.

Revised to November 1st, 1912.

The law of the Province of Quebec relating to property and civil rights is to be found in the Civil Code of Lower Canada of 1866, which is to a large extent a codification and adaptation of the old customary law of the Prevoste of Paris. It is very similar to the Code Napoleon, which is derived from the same source.

Accounts.—Non-resident Plaintiff.—A non-resident plaintiff is free to sue in our courts, but he may be required to produce a power of attorney appointing a resident of the Province to sue and receive payment on his behalf, and he may also be required to furnish security for the costs which may be incurred by the defendant in defending the action. (See Power of Attorney.) Security may be furnished by (1) a deposit in court; (2) the bond of a personal surety or sureties; or (3) the bond of a duly licensed surety company. The full names, domicile, and legal description of the non-resident plaintiff must be given when suit is to be brought.

Accounts.—Proof Of.—In cases in which the debtor does not enter an appearance, proof may be made by the affidavit of any person having full knowledge of the facts. (See Affidavit.) In all cases where the debtor appears, even though he does not contest, proof must be made by testimony adduced either before the court or under a rogatory commission.

Affidavit.—Affidavits for use in the Province of Quebec may be made before (1) a commissioner appointed to receive affidavits for use in the courts of this Province; (2) the mayor or chief magistrate of a city or town under his seal of office; (3) any British Consul or Vice-Consul. An affidavit taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public or a Commissioner outside the Province of Quebec will not be received by our courts.

Agents.—An agent binds his principal within the scope of his mandate, express or apparent. If he exceeds such authority he renders himself personally liable, but not the principal, who, however, may ratify a previously unauthorized act. Brokers and factors who buy and sell on commission for foreign principals, are personally liable towards third parties, whether the name of the principal be disclosed or not. An agent may continue to bind his principal towards third parties until such third parties are notified of the revocation of his mandate.

Appeals.—In matters of over $100.00 an appeal can be had to the Superior Court sitting in Review, but the appellant must file his inscription in review within eight days after the rendering of the judgment appealed from and deposit from $50.00 to $75.00 as security.

In matters exceeding $500.00 an appeal can be taken to the Court of King's Bench (Appeal Side), within six months, upon giving security.

Further appeals are governed by the Supreme Court Act, R.S.C., cap. 139, and the Rules of the Privy Council, to which an appeal can be had in cases involving an amount exceeding $5,000.00.

Arrest for Debt.—Can be had only by means of a writ of capias ad respondendum. A plaintiff may obtain such a writ upon affidavit setting forth that the defendant owes him a personal debt of at least $50, created or payable within the limits of the Provinces of Quebec and Ontario in any of the following cases: (a) When the debtor is immediately about to leave the Provinces of Quebec and Ontario with intent to defraud his creditors in general and the plaintiff in particular; (b) when the defendant has secreted or is secreting his property with the same intent; or (c) when the debtor is a trader who has ceased his payments and refused to make a judicial abandonment of his property for the benefit of his creditors, although duly required to do so.

Assigned Claims.—May be collected by the assignee after notice of assignment has been served upon the debtor.

Assignments.—Any unsecured creditor for the sum of $200 or over may move the Court to make a demand of abandonment of property upon a debtor. The creditor so demanding must accompany his praecipe by an affidavit and vouchers in support of his claim. The creditor so demanding is usually appointed judicial guardian, and is bound to give notice of such appointment to other creditors in the manner prescribed by law or the court, summoning them to meet at a fixed date and place for the purpose of appointing a curator. A majority in value of the creditors represented at that meeting appoint the curator, together with inspectors, to assist him in the winding up of the insolvent estate, which the curator then proceeds to do. An assignment for the benefit of the creditors does not discharge the debtor except from the amounts paid by the curator to the creditors.

Attachments.—A writ of attachment before judgment is allowed on conditions similar to those required for a writ of capias (See Arrest for Debt), except that it may be issued for a sum of $5 and upwards. (See also Revendication.)

Attachments after judgment in the hands of third parties is effected by the service upon them of a writ ordering them to retain and declare under oath on a day specified in the writ, whatever money or effects they may hold or which may subsequently come into their possession, belonging to the debtor; upon delivering over such effects or moneys in the manner ordered by the court, they obtain a judicial discharge. The debtor may, at any time after judgment and before execution, deposit with the clerk of the Circuit Court one-fifth of his salary with a sworn statement of amount of such salary, and name, occupation and place of business of employer, and thus escape seizure. Anyone seizing in the hands of the employer after such deposit has been made, is liable in damages. Other creditors may, within eight days of such deposit, file their claims and give notice to parties when they are entitled to share in the distribution of such deposit.

Banks.—Are subject to general Bank Acts of Canada.

Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes. See R. S. C. Cap. 119.

Bills of Sale and Chattel Mortgages.—Are not valid in the Province of Quebec.

Bills of Lading.—Give title to goods represented by them, are negotiable, and may be pledged in the same manner as the effects they represent.

Bulk Sales.—Any person who directly or indirectly buys any stock in trade or merchandise must, before paying the purchase price, whether the sale be for cash or upon time, obtain from the seller an Affidavit containing the names and addresses of the persons who have sold him the said stock in trade and who have not been paid, and the amount due to each. Every sale or transfer of a stock in trade made otherwise is as regards every creditor who has sold the Vendor such stock in trade null and void until such creditor is paid or settled with. The buyer having received the Affidavit must pay to the creditors therein mentioned ratably and in accordance with the contract between them and the seller the sums which are due them for such effects or merchandise. This provision does not apply to the different officers acting under authority of the Courts.

(The Statute I. Geo. V. First Session, Cap. 39, gives the form in which the Affidavit should be made.)

Collections.—See Accounts.

Corporations.—Corporations are constituted either as joint-stock companies under letters patent, or by special Acts of Parliament or of the Legislature.

A joint-stock company can be formed for the prosecution of any lawful industrial pursuit, excepting the construction and working of railways, or of telegraph and telephone lines, or the business of banking, of insurance, or of a loan company. Shareholders are liable only for the amount of their subscription.

The laws governing joint-stock companies, their formation, management, liquidation, etc., are set forth in statutes of the Dominion and of the Province, and are too extensive to be summarized here, but they do not differ very materially from those in force in other English countries.

Extra-Provincial corporations may do business in this Province provided they take out a license, register as such, and pay the taxes imposed by statute.

Deeds.—Deeds may be made in either of the following forms: (a) Authentic; and (b) by private writing. An authentic deed is signed by the parties in the presence of a Notary Public, who also signs as such. The original remains of record in the office of the Notary and constitutes part of his repertory. Copies certified to by the Notary are issued as required, and make proof of their contents in the same manner as an original deed. Certain deeds must be in authentic form, the most important class being those by which real estate, situate in the parishes formerly governed by the Seigniorial law, is transferred or hypothecated, or some real right therein created or transferred. Deeds affecting lands in the parts of the Province held in free and common soccage, may be made by private writing between the parties, usually in the presence of subscribing witnesses. The original only makes proof of the facts therein contained according to the rules of the common law.

Employers' Liability.—See Workmen's Compensation.

Exemptions.—The following articles are exempt from seizure: Beds, bedding and bedsteads used by the family; wearing apparel; two stoves and their little appendages; cooking utensils and furniture up to fifty dollars; a sewing machine; fuel and wood for three months; a span of horses or yoke of oxen; one cow, two pigs, four sheep, plough, harrow, cart, etc.; books relating to the profession, art and trade of the debtor to the value of $200.00; tools, implements or chattels ordinarily used in his profession, art or trade to the value of $200.00; any money or objects given or bequeathed for alimony on condition of their being exempt from seizure.

Foreign Judgments.—Foreign judgments make prima facie proof of the debt, but the defendant will be allowed to appear and plead anything that he has already pleaded, or could have pleaded in the first court. If a judgment of one of the other Provinces of Canada is proceeded upon, the defendant cannot plead to it if he has already contested in the case in the court where the judgment was taken, or has been personally served with the writ of summons.

Fraud, Statute of.—The statute of fraud is in force in this province. In commercial matters where the sum exceeds $50.00, proof cannot be made by verbal testimony (a) of any promise whereby a debt is taken out of the operation of the law representing the limitation of actions; (b) of any promise or ratification made by a person of the age of majority of any obligation contracted during his minority; (c) upon any representation or assurance in favor of a person to enable him to obtain credit, money or goods thereupon; or (d) upon any contract for the sale of goods, unless the buyer has accepted or received part of the goods or given something in earnest to bind the bargain. Verbal proof can in no case be made to contradict the terms of a valid written agreement, unless an admission can be secured from the opposite party.

Insolvency.—See Assignment for Benefit of Creditors.

Intestacy.—In cases of abintestate succession, the property passes to the lawful heirs to the twelfth degree, and in default of them to the surviving consort, or if there be none, to the Crown. Aliens may inherit in the same manner as British subjects. The order in which the heirs inherit is (1) descendant relatives, if any, the nearest excluding the more remote; (2) in default of descendant relatives then the property of the succession passes, half to the father and mother or one of them, and the other half to his brothers, sisters, nephews and nieces who come by representation of a deceased brother or sister. As regards the more remote relatives, the general rule is that the nearest blood relative of each line (paternal and maternal) exclude the more remote relatives of the same line. No one is bound to accept a succession, but a succession may be accepted under benefit of inventory. The law of the Province of Quebec makes no provision for Letters of Administration, but, Letters of Verification may be obtained if the deceased was intestate and had property outside the limits of this Province, or debts due by persons not residing therein. The Petition to that effect sets forth that the person whose succession has devolved has died intestate, and mentions the persons who are his heirs and their relationship to him. Its allegations must be verified by Affidavit, and must be served upon the known heirs who reside in the Province. A summary of the application and the time when it will be made must be inserted once a week during four consecutive weeks in one French newspaper and one English newspaper in the district in which the application is to be made. It must be supported by proper certificates of birth, etc. Any heir may enter an appearance and contest in the same manner as an ordinary action is contested.

Joint-Stock Companies. (See Corporations).

Limitation of Actions.—The following actions are prescribed by two years: For wages of workmen not reputed domestics and who are hired for a year or more.

The following actions are prescribed by one year: For wages of clerks and other employees who are hired by the day, week or month, or for less than a year.

The following are prescribed by five years: Upon inland or foreign bills of exchange, promissory notes, or notes for the delivery of grain or other things, or upon any claim of a commercial nature, reckoning from maturity, except bank notes; of moveable effects (between non-traders) or between traders and non-traders.

Marriage Contract.—Marriage contract must be passed before a notary public, and may contain any provisions not contrary to the law or good morals. It must be completed before the marriage, as no alterations or additions can be made after the marriage ceremony.

Married Women.—A married woman, common as to property with her husband, may carry on business in her own name if authorized by him. The husband is liable for her business debts. If she be separated from him as to property by contract of marriage she retains the entire administration of her property, moveable and immoveable. She cannot, however, alienate her immoveables without the special consent of her husband. She cannot bind herself for her husband's debts, saving the rights of creditors who contract in good faith.

Partnership, Limited, Special, Etc.—Partnership may be limited or general. A limited partnership must contain one or more general partners who are responsible for all the obligations of the firm. The limited partner contracts to furnish a certain amount; and, provided the amount is furnished, and he does not intermeddle with the affairs of the partnership in such a way as to give himself out to the public as a general partner, his liability is restricted to this sum.

General partners are liable in their personal property to the full extent of the firm's obligations.

Power of Attorney.—Must contain the full name and legal description of both the principal and the agent, and the nature of the debt, and confer power to sue, and to receive payment.

Registration.—All real rights and the priority of same are established by registration in a public registry office kept for the purpose; such real rights subject to be registered take effect from the moment of their registration. They have no effect against creditors whose rights have been previously registered.

Revendication.—Attachments in revendication may be issued to secure property claimed by the plaintiff which is illegally detained by the defendant.

The right to Revendicate is subject to four conditions: (1) The sale must not have been made on credit; (2) the thing sold must still be entire and in the same condition; (3) and must not have passed into the hands of a third party who has paid for it; and (4) the right must be exercised within eight days after the delivery (which is extended to thirty days in case of the debtor's insolvency). A conservatory seizure may also be made in certain specified cases, or of goods in transit, or even after the goods have reached the defendant's possession, if the conditions for revendication exist.

Taxation.—This question is too complicated to be dealt with here, but generally all commercial corporations, companies, partnerships and persons doing business within the Province are subject to special business assessments payable to the Provincial Government, as well as business taxes levied by the municipalities within which they open and maintain offices. Joint stock companies and corporations must pay to the Province a tax proportionate to the amount of their capital stock or such proportion thereof as may be employed within the Province, besides a special tax for each office or branch office maintained within the Province. See 6 Edw. VII., Cap. 10, and amendments.

Traders.—Any individual who is in possession of his civil rights may carry on trade or business in the Province. Any person doing business alone under any other name than his own must register in the offices of the Prothonotary and Registrar, a declaration, stating his full name and legal description, the nature of the business and the name under which it is to be conducted, and stating whether he is married or single, and, if married, particulars as to ante-nuptial contract. Such registration must be effected, under penalty of a heavy fine, within sixty days from date of commencing business. Every partnership and commercial company doing business within the Province must be similarly registered.

Wills.—Wills may be made in either of three forms: (1) Before two notaries, or one notary and two witnesses; (2) before two subscribing witnesses, who sign as such in the presence and sight of the testator and of each other; (3) holograph—that is, written entirely and signed by the testator. The two latter have no special form. No restrictions are imposed by the law with regard to the free disposition of property by will.

Workmen's Compensation.—Workmen, employees and apprentices employed in certain industrial pursuits and injured by reason of or in the course of their work have a right to a certain portion of their wages, or, if killed, their representatives have a right to from $1,000 to $2,000, without necessity of proof of fault on employer's part unless the victim intentionally provoked the accident.

If the fault be serious and wilful misconduct of either the victim or employer, the Court may increase or diminish compensation.

SASKATCHEWAN

SYNOPSIS OF LAWS.

Compiled expressly for the "Canada Legal Directory" by Haultain, Cross, Jonah & Hugg, Regina, of the Saskatchewan Bar.

(Revised to January 1, 1913.)

Generally.—By the Northwest Territories Act (Dominion of Canada), and subject to the provisions of the said Act, the laws of England relating to civil and criminal matters "as the same existed on the 15th day of July, 1870, shall be in force in the Territories, in so far as the same are applicable to the Territories, and in so far as the same have not been or are not hereafter repealed, altered, varied, modified or affected by any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom applicable to the Territories, or of the Parliament of Canada, or by any Ordinance of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council or of the Legislative Assembly."

The same Act also provides that "All laws and ordinances in force in the Territories, and not repealed by or inconsistent with this Act shall remain in force until it is otherwise ordered by the Parliament of Canada, by the Governor in Council, or by the Legislative Assembly under the authority of this Act."

And by 4-5 Edward VII., chapter 42, being an Act to establish and provide for the Government of the Province of Saskatchewan known as "The Saskatchewan Act," it is provided (Section 16) that "All laws and all orders and regulations made thereunder, so far as they are not inconsistent with anything contained in this Act, or as to which this Act contains no provision intended as a substitute therefor, and all courts of civil and criminal jurisdiction, and all commissions, powers, authorities, and functions, and all officers and functionaries, judicial, administrative and ministerial, existing immediately before the coming into force of this Act in the territory hereby established as the Province of Saskatchewan, shall continue in the said Province as if this Act and the Alberta Act had not been passed; subject, nevertheless except with respect to such as are enacted by or existing under Acts of the Parliament of Great Britain or of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be repealed, abolished or altered by the Parliament of Canada or by the Legislature of the said Province, according to the authority of the Parliament or of the said Legislature....."

Aliens.—Both real and personal property may be held by aliens in the same manner as by British subjects.

Assignments.—Every assignment for the general benefit of creditors must be made to an Official Assignee appointed under the provisions of "The Assignments Act." There is an Official Assignee for each Judicial District. An assignment for the general benefit of creditors under this Act shall take precedence of all attachments of debts by way of garnishment where the money has not been actually paid over to the garnishing creditor as well as of all other attachments and of all judgments and of all executions not completely executed by payment, subject to the lien, if any, of execution or attaching creditors for their costs. A sheriff who has seized property of an assignor under execution or has in his possession any money realized by seizure at the time of making the assignment must turn the same over to the assignee on being furnished the necessary proof of the assignment.

The assignment with affidavit of execution must be registered within ten days in the office of the Clerk of the Registration District for Chattel Mortgages, and within fifteen days in the Land Titles Office for the Land Registration District in which any land vested by the Act in the Assignee is situated. Notice of the Assignment must also be published in the Saskatchewan Gazette and in one other newspaper.

Meetings of creditors are provided for by the Statute. All questions at meetings are decided by a majority vote calculated as provided by Statute. Creditors in proving claims must state whether they hold security. If the security be on the estate of the debtor, or on the estate of a third party for whom the debtor is secondarily liable, the creditor must value the security, and the creditors may consent to his ranking, after deducting such valuation; or an assignment may be required of the security at an advance of 10 per cent., to be paid out of the estate as soon as the assignee has realized the security, and the creditor in such case may rank for the difference. If the creditor claims on a negotiable instrument on which the debtor is only indirectly or secondarily liable, and which is not mature or exigible, such creditor is to value the liability of the person primarily liable; but after the maturity of the liability and its non-payment, the creditor may amend and revalue his claim. Claims must be proved by affidavit, and vouchers must be furnished. A creditor holding a claim not accrued may prove and vote. Interest is to be deducted in fixing the amount of such a claim. The law of set-off applies to claims against the estate.

Claims for wages or salary for not more than three months (and for arrears only and not for any unearned portion) have priority over other claims.

The Act makes full provision for the protection of creditors against fraudulent or preferential transfers of property.

Attachment.—1. Of debt.

The plaintiff in any action for a debt or liquidated demand before or after judgment, and any person who has obtained a judgment or order for the recovery or payment of money may issue a garnishee summons, which is issued upon the plaintiff or judgment creditor, his solicitor or agent filing with the clerk an affidavit showing the nature and amount of the claim or judgment, and swearing positively to the indebtedness, and stating to the best of the deponent's information and belief the proposed garnishee (naming him) is indebted to such defendant or judgment debtor. Service of such garnishee summons shall bind any debt due, or accruing due, from the garnishee to the defendant or judgment debtor. No debt due or accruing due to a mechanic, workman, labourer, servant, clerk or employee for or in respect of his wages or salary, shall be liable to seizure or attachment unless the same exceeds $25, and then only to the extent of the excess. This exemption of $25 does not apply to debts for board and lodging.

2. Of personal property.

After the commencement of a suit wherein the claim is for the recovery of a debt of $50.00 or upwards the plaintiff may secure a writ of attachment against all the debtor's goods not exempt from seizure in the following cases:

(a) When the debtor has absconded or is about to abscond from Saskatchewan and has personal property liable to seizure under execution.

(b) Where the debtor has attempted to remove such personal property out of Saskatchewan or to sell or dispose of the same with intent to defraud his creditors.

(c) When the defendant keeps concealed to avoid service of process.

In any case where the debtor has absconded or is about to abscond from Saskatchewan leaving no wife or family behind, no property of such debtor shall be exempt from seizure.

Bankruptcy.—There is no bankruptcy law in Saskatchewan, but a debtor may make an assignment for the general benefit of his creditors and insure a ratable distribution of his assets. See "Assignments."

Bills of Sale and Chattel Mortgages.—Bills of sale and chattel mortgages, not accompanied by an immediate delivery and an actual change of possession of the things sold or mortgaged, must be registered within thirty days from execution, with an affidavit of execution and an affidavit of bona fides, which varies according to the circumstances of the case. They take effect from the date of registration only. In case they are not registered as provided for, or in case the consideration for which they are made is not truly expressed, they are null and void as against creditors, and subsequent purchasers, and mortgages in good faith for valuable consideration. No mortgage, bill of sale, lien, charge, incumbrance, conveyance, transfer or assignment intended to operate or have effect as a security in so far as it assumes to bind or affect any growing crop or crop to be grown, shall be valid, unless the same be as security for the purchase price of seed grain. There are special provisions relating to seed grain mortgages. Mortgages filed cease to be valid as against creditors, etc., after two years unless renewed. Further renewals after first renewal must be yearly. Renewal is made by statement in form prescribed, which shows interest of mortgagee, assignee, etc., full statement of amount due, all payments on account, with affidavit of truth of the statement. In case of removal of chattels from one district to another three weeks are allowed to file copy of mortgage in office for district to which goods are removed.

In the event of the permanent removal into the Province of goods and chattels subject to a mortgage or bill of sale made without the Province, from a place where such goods and chattels were when such chattel mortgage or bill of sale was given, a copy of such chattel mortgage or bill of sale, and the affidavits and documents and instruments relating thereto verified as compared copies, must be filed with the Registration Clerk to which such goods and chattels are removed within three weeks from such removal.

Bills of sale and chattel mortgages given by railway companies, covering cars, equipment, rolling stock, etc., are not required to be filed with the Registration Clerk, but the same or sworn copies thereof may be filed with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies within the time prescribed for filing chattel mortgages, and from the date of such filing have priority without renewal, affidavit of execution or of bona fides.

Companies.—The Companies Act is copied largely from the English Companies Act. Incorporation may be secured by any three or more persons for any purpose to which the authority of the Legislature extends (excepting railway, telegraph, insurance, loan and trust companies) by filing with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies Memorandum and Articles of Association.

By "The Foreign Companies Act" all companies not incorporated within Saskatchewan and carrying on business within the Province are required to register under the Act.

Compensation to Workmen.—"The Workman's Compensation Act" passed in 1911 is modelled largely after the English Act.

The Act applies only to employment by the principal on or in or about a railway, factory, mine, quarry or engineering work, or in or about any building which is either being constructed or repaired or being demolished.

By the Act the employer shall be liable to pay compensation whether or not:

(a) The injury or death resulted from the negligence of any person engaged in a common employment with the injured employee; or

(b) The injury or death was caused by the negligence of the employer or of any person in his service or by reason of any defect in the condition or arrangement of the ways, works, machinery, plant, building or premises connected with, intended for or used in the business of the employer; or

(c) The workman contributed to or was the sole cause of the injury or death by reason of his own negligence or misconduct; or

(d) The injury or death resulted from a risk arising out of or incidental to the nature of the employment and which the workman expressly or impliedly assumed.

An action under this Act must be commenced within six months from the occurrence of the accident, and the damage in no case can exceed $2,000.00. The Act, however, does not take away any of the common law or statutory rights which existed at the time of the passing of the same.

Conditional Sale of Goods.—Where goods over the value of $15.00 are sold upon condition that the right of property or possession shall not pass until the payment of the purchase price, a copy of the agreement of sale, with affidavit of bona fides must be filed in the registration district within which the purchaser resides within thirty days, or the seller cannot set up his right against subsequent purchasers, mortgagees or creditors. There must be a sufficient description of the goods sold so that they may be readily and easily known and distinguished. In case the vendor repossesses the goods he must retain the same for twenty days before selling, during which time the purchaser may redeem, and he must also give purchaser notice of the sale.

Manufactured goods, having at the time of delivery thereof to the buyer or bailee the manufacturer's or vendor's name painted, printed or stamped thereon or plainly attached thereto by a plate or similar device, are not within the provisions of the Ordinance if such manufacturer or vendor (being the seller or bailor of such goods or chattels) keeps an office in the Province where inquiry may be had and information procured concerning such sale or bailment, and if such manufacturer or vendor, or the agent thereof, gives such information within five days after request therefor made in person or by registered letter.

Decedent's Estate.—An official known as the Public Administrator is appointed for each Judicial District, whose duty it is to take the necessary and proper steps to administer the estate if no application be made for administration or probate within one month after the death of any person. It is the duty of an executor or administrator to advertise for creditors to send in claims against the estate of the deceased person. The claim must be verified by statutory declaration, and the declaration must state the security, if any, held and the value thereof. Distribution is made after the time stated in the order directing the advertisement, among the claims so filed.

Administrators' accounts must be passed before a judge within two years from the date of grant of letters.

Devolution of Estates.—(1) If any intestate dies leaving a widow and a child or children or issue, one-third of his real and personal property shall go to his widow and the remaining two-thirds shall go to his child, or if more than one to his children in equal shares, and in case of the decease of any of his children to such as shall legally represent them, such representatives to take the share of the deceased child in equal proportions, and if there is no child of the intestate living at the time of his death, to the other lineal descendants of such intestate.

(2) If an intestate dies leaving a widow and no issue his whole estate, real and personal, shall go to his widow.

(3) If an intestate dies leaving a child or children or issue and no widow his whole estate, real and personal, shall go to his child or children in equal shares, and if any of the children shall have died leaving issue such issue shall take according to their right of representation.

(4) If an intestate dies leaving no widow or issue his whole estate, real and personal, shall go to his father.

(5) If an intestate dies leaving no widow, issue or father, his whole estate, real and personal, shall go to his mother.

(6) If an intestate dies leaving no widow or issue or father or mother, his whole estate, real and personal, shall go to his brothers and sisters in equal shares, and if any of his brothers or sisters be dead the children of such deceased brother or sister shall take the parent's share.

(7) If an intestate dies leaving no widow, issue, father, mother, brother or sister or children, of any brother or sister, his estate, real and personal, shall go in equal shares to his next of kin in equal degrees, excepting where there are two or more collateral kindred in equal degrees but claiming through different ancestors those who claim through the nearest ancestor shall be preferred to those claiming through an ancestor who is more remote; but in no case shall representatives be admitted among collaterals after brother's and sister's children.

(8) The real and personal property of a married woman dying intestate shall be distributed in the same proportions and in the same manner as the real and personal property of a husband dying intestate.

(9) If a wife has left her husband and has lived in adultery after leaving him she shall take no part of his real or personal estate.

(10) If a husband has left his wife and has lived in adultery after leaving her he shall take no part of her real or personal estate.

(11) Land shall descend to the personal representative of the deceased owner thereof and be distributed as if it were personal estate.

The mother is entitled to the personal property of an illegitimate child who dies intestate.

(12) Dower and tenancy by the courtesy do not exist. A widow has the same right in the land of her deceased husband as if it were personal property.

The widow of a man who dies leaving a will by the terms of which his said widow would in the opinion of the Judge before whom the application is made receive less than if he had died intestate leaving a widow and children may apply to the Supreme Court for relief. On such application the Court may allow her out of her deceased husband's estate sufficient to bring the total amount up to one-third the estate.

(13) Illegitimate children shall inherit from the mother as if they were legitimate, and through the mother, if dead, any real or personal property which she would if living have taken by purchase, gift, demise or descent from any other person.

Also see "Wills."

Divorce.—There is no divorce court in Saskatchewan. The procedure is by way of petition to the Canadian Senate, and relief is granted by Special Act of Parliament.

Executions.—Executions against both goods and lands may be issued immediately after judgment, or at any time within six years and subsequent thereto upon the order of a judge. An execution expires at the end of two years from date of issue unless it is sooner renewed.

Exemptions.—The following real and personal property of an execution debtor and his family is hereby declared free from seizure by virtue of all writs of execution, namely:

1. The necessary and ordinary clothing of himself and his family.
2. Furniture, household furnishings, dairy utensils, swine and poultry to the extent of five hundred dollars.
3. The necessary food for the family of the execution debtor during six months, which may include grain and flour or vegetables and meat, either prepared for use or on foot.
4. Three oxen, horses or mules or any three of them, six cows, six sheep, three pigs and fifty domestic fowls, besides the animals the execution debtor may have chosen to keep for food purposes and food for the same for the months of November, December, January, February, March and April, or for such of these months or portions thereof as may follow the date of seizure, provided such seizure be made between the first day of August and the thirteenth day of April next ensuing.
5. The harness necessary for three animals, one wagon or two carts, one mower or cradle and scythe, one breaking plough, one cross plough, one set of harrows, one horse rake, one sewing machine, one reaper or binder, one set of sleighs and one seed drill.
6. The books of a professional man.
7. The tools and necessary implements to the extent of two hundred dollars used by the execution debtor in the practice of his trade or profession.
8. Seed grain sufficient to seed all his land under cultivation not exceeding eighty acres, at the rate of two bushels per acre, defendant to have choice of seed, and fourteen bushels of potatoes.
9. The homestead, provided the same be not more than one hundred and sixty acres; in case it be more the surplus may be sold subject to any lien or incumbrance thereon;
10. The house and buildings occupied by the execution debtor and also the lot or lots on which the same are situate according to the registered plan of the same to the extent of fifteen hundred dollars.

The execution debtor is entitled to a choice from the greater quantity of the same class of articles. None of the above articles, except for food, clothing or bedding, the price of which forms the subject matter of the judgment upon which the execution is issued, are exempt from seizure. There is no exemption in the case of an execution issued upon a judgment or order for the payment of alimony. The above exemptions do not apply to any case where a debtor has absconded or is about to abscond from Saskatchewan leaving no wife or family behind. In the case of the death of the execution debtor the above exemptions may be claimed, if the property is in the use and enjoyment of the widow and children or widow or children of the deceased and is necessary for the maintenance.

Foreign Judgments.—There is no Statutory law in this Province respecting Foreign Judgments, and the Common Law therefore applies. See Brenner vs. Cameron, 16 Q.W.R. p. 331, and Rutledge vs. United States Savings & Loan Co., 37 S.C.R. (1906), page 546.

Garnishment.—See Attachment of Debts.

Insurance.—Any one may insure his life for the benefit of his wife and children or any of them or subsequently to insuring declare in writing (including his will) that any insurance on his life is for their benefit. Such insurance is not chargeable with the insured's debts, and does not form part of his estate, but goes direct to the beneficiaries.

Intestacy.—See Devolution of Estates.

Judgments.—A judgment does not bind the goods or lands of a judgment debtor. Execution must be issued on the judgment. A judgment remains in force for twelve years.

Justices of the Peace.—They have jurisdiction throughout the whole of Saskatchewan.

Land Titles.—The Torrens System is now and has been in force since January 1st, 1887. Almost all the land is now under the Land Titles Act, and any land that is not must be brought under the Act before it can be dealt with.

Instruments are entitled to priority according to the time of registration, and not according to date of execution.

Whenever any land is granted by the Crown the Registrar retains the Letters Patent and a certificate or title is issued to the patentee. Upon the registration of each transfer the late certificate of title is cancelled and a new one issued to the new registered owner. The original certificate of title is retained in the office and a duplicated certificate of title delivered to the owner. When the land is mortgaged the duplicate certificate of title is impounded and retained in the Registry Office until the mortgage is discharged.

Section 66 of the Act provides: "The land mentioned in any certificate of title granted under this Act shall, by implication and without any special mention therein, unless the contrary is expressly declared, be subject to:

(a) Any subsisting reservations or exceptions contained in the original grant of the land from the Crown.

(b) All unpaid taxes.

(c) Any public highway or right of way, or other public easements, howsoever created upon, over or in respect of the land.

(d) Any subsisting lease or agreement for a lease for a period not exceeding three years, where there is actual occupation of the land under the same.

(e) Any decrees, orders or executions against or affecting the interest of the owner in the land which have been filed and maintained in force against the owner.

(f) Any right of expropriation which may, by statute or ordinance, be vested in any person, body corporated, or His Majesty.

(g) Any right of way or other easement granted or acquired under the provisions of "The Irrigation Act."

Every certificate of title granted under the Act (except in case of fraud, wherein the owner has participated or colluded) is conclusive evidence of ownership of the land.

No provision is made for registering agreements for sale of land. The purchaser's rights, however, under agreements for sale and under any unregistered instrument affecting land may be protected by filling a caveat.

See "The Land Titles Act," cap. 41, Revised Statutes of Saskatchewan, 1909, and amendments.

Land Registration Fees.—Tariff of fees on registration of instruments. (Extract only.)

For registering a transfer and issuing a certificate of title thereon, and duplicate thereof, and including fees for memorandums, searches and inspections:

(a) Where the value of the property does not exceed $500, including fees payable to the assurance fund $3.00

(b) Where the value of the property is over $500..... 4.00

And in addition the fees payable to the assurance fund.

For a certificate of title on a transmission, however effected, including fees for duplicate thereof and for registration, searches and all other services connected therewith, but not including fees payable to assurance fund.... 5.00

For registering or filing any lease, mortgage, incumbrance or charge, surrender or power of attorney, including all memorandums, searches and other services connected therewith 1.50

(a) For filing first mortgage or incumbrance before issue of grant 1.00

(b) For every mortgage or incumbrance after the first. 1.50

For registering or filing any mechanic's lien certificate, order or decree of a court or judge, or any assignment or discharge wholly or partially of a mortgage, incumbrance or charge; or a satisfaction of an annuity or any other instrument affecting land other than those particularly specified in this tariff; including all memorandums, searches and other services connected therewith 1.00

For each abstract of title50

For filing each caveat 2.00

For withdrawal of caveat 1.00

For certificate of executions, etc., for one name50

For each additional name25

For each certificate of charge50

For general register certificate, one name 1.50

For each additional name 1.25

Note.—In addition to the above fees there is payable to the assurance fund, on the registration of every grant of incumbered land, on the registration of the first transfer after the issue of a certificate of title where the land was not incumbered, on the increased value of the land in every subsequent transfer, and on the filing of a first mortgage or incumbrance before issue of grant, one-fifth of one per cent. on the sworn value up to $5,000, and one-tenth of one per cent. on any excess over such $5,000.

Liens.—See Conditional Sale of Goods.

Limitation of Actions.—All actions for the recovery of merchants' accounts, bills, notes, and all actions of debt grounded upon any lending or other contract without specialty shall be commenced within six years after the cause of such action arose.

The provisions of the Real Property Limitations Act, 1874, being chapter 57 of the Statutes of the Imperial Parliament, passed in the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth year of Her Majesty's reign, are declared to be in force, and to have been in force since the passing thereof.

Judgments outlaw in twelve years, and contracts under seal in twenty years.

No right to the access and use of light or any other easement, right in gross of profit a prendre can be acquired by prescription.

Married Women.—In respect to both land and personal property they have all the rights, and are subject to all the liabilities of a femme sole.

Mechanics' Liens.—The Mechanics' Lien Act gives a contractor, mechanic, labourer and material man a lien for work done or material furnished upon the interest of the owner in the erection, building, land, etc.

A labourer cannot sign away his right to a lien.

If the work is done or materials furnished upon a premises on which there is a mortgage prior to the lien, the lien takes priority over the mortgage to the extent of the increase in value of the premises by reason of such work or furnishing or materials.

The owner of the building, etc., upon which the work is being done must retain 20 per cent. of the cost for 30 days after completion thereof.

Every mechanic or labourer whose lien is for wages shall to the extent of 30 days' wages have priority over all other liens.

A claim for lien may be filed in the Land Titles Office of the Land Registration District, in which the land is situated.

(a) By a contractor or sub-contractor during the performance of the contract or within 30 days after completion.

(b) For services during the performance of the services or within 30 days after completion.

(c) For wages during the performance of the work or within 30 days after last day's work.

(d) For materials at any time before or during the furnishing or within 30 days after the furnishing of the last material.

Once a lien is filed it remains in force until withdrawn or otherwise removed by proceedings under the Act.

The taking of security or recovery of a personal judgment does not merge the lien.

Proceedings to enforce a lien are taken in the District Court.

Real Estate.—See Land Titles.

Wills.—Every person may dispose of by will all real and personal property to which he is entitled either at law or in equity at the time of his death. No will made by any person under the age of 21 years is valid. No will is valid unless it is in writing, and signed at the foot or end thereof by the testator, or by some other person in his presence and by his direction; such signature shall be made or acknowledged by the testator, in the presence of two or more witnesses present at the same time, who shall attest and shall subscribe the will in the presence of the testator, but no form of attestation is necessary. Devise (other than a charge for the payment of a debt) to witness or the husband or wife of a witness, is void, but the witness may prove the execution of the will. No will, codicil, or any part thereof, shall be revoked otherwise than by marriage, or by some writing declaring an intention to revoke the same, and executed in the manner in which a will is required to be executed, or by the burning, tearing or otherwise destroying the same, by the testator, or by some person in his presence and by his direction with the intention of revoking the same.

GUIDE TO LEGAL PROCEDURE IN ENGLAND.

By Rubinstein, Nash & Co., Solicitors, Raymond Bldgs., Gray's Inn, London, England.

HIGH COURT PROCEDURE.

Solicitors and Counsel—In England, legal practitioners must be native born or naturalized British subjects. They are divided into two classes (I) Solicitors and (II) Barristers or Counsel. Their respective spheres are strictly defined. The term "Attorney" has been superseded. "Solicitor" is now the only term used.

Before admission, Solicitors must serve under Articles of Clerkship and pass three examinations. They alone bring and conduct Actions, and no person other than a duly qualified Member of the profession is permitted to take any part in proceedings on behalf of a litigant. Solicitor's duties incidental to the conduct of proceedings, include the preparation of Counsel's Brief for the trial, giving the history of the case, and setting out the evidence of the Witnesses. Solicitors share with Counsel the right of audience in Chamber applications, in all Divisions of the High Court, and in Court applications in the County Courts and Police Courts.

Barristers, commonly termed Counsel, may be described as specialists. They have an exclusive right of audience in High Court cases tried in open Court. In matters of importance or doubt "Counsel's Opinion" is often taken, and during the progress of an Action, Counsel usually settle the pleadings, and advise on evidence and on other points as they arise.

The Lord Chancellor appoints from the leading men at the Bar, King's Counsel, who add "K.C." after their names, and are known as "Leaders"; the other Members of the Bar being called "Juniors." Two Counsel, a Leader and a Junior, are usually briefed in cases of sufficient importance to justify the expense.

Counsel's fees depend largely on Counsel's standing and the nature of the litigation.

In starting an important Action, it is common to retain a leading Counsel, and this is especially the case in the Chancery Division. The selection of Counsel is often of great importance.

By established custom and by the etiquette of the profession, Counsel do not hold communication with the litigant except in the presence of the Solicitors who have charge of the case.

The question of amalgamation of the two branches is frequently discussed. The merit claimed for the English system is, that a competent Solicitor can deal with any matter, in view of the fact that he can from the whole Bar choose the particular men or man best qualified to conduct the case in Court.

THE HIGH COURT.

The constitution and procedure of the Courts are controlled by the Judicature Act, 1873, and the Orders and Rules issued thereunder.

The jurisdiction of the High Court extends over England and Wales. The Central Office is in London.

The Court has three divisions. Each division deals with distinctly defined matters, and is presided over by its specially appointed Judges.

Chancery—Actions relating to Injunctions, Administration of Estates, Trusts, Partnership, Specific performance of Contracts, Infringements of Patents, Company work, &c.

King's Bench—Actions on Contracts, including recovery of debts, damages for torts, &c.

Probate, Divorce and Admiralty—Probate covers Wills and Letters of Administration. Divorce includes judicial separations, and Admiralty includes shipping cases.

Chancery cases are tried by a Judge. Other cases are tried by a Judge with or without a Jury (Common or Special). Masters deal in Chambers with Interlocutory matters.

Appeals from a Master are made to a Judge in Chambers. From the latter according to the nature of the case to a Divisional Court (usually two Judges), or to the Court of Appeal (three Judges). Appeals from a case tried in Court are to the Court of Appeal. The ultimate Court of Appeal for English, Irish and Scotch Appeals is the House of Lords, and the Privy Council for Indian and Colonial cases.

Writ—Actions are commenced by a Writ or Originating Summons.

The name and address of every Plaintiff has to appear, and in the case of an Oversea Firm or unincorporated Company, the name and address of every partner.

Females are described as "Spinster," "Married Women," or "Widow." If married, the name of the husband (if known) should be given.

Corporations sue in their Corporate name. Their registered or principal address must be given.

Appearance—A Defendant living in any part of England has eight days from service of a Writ issued in London, to enter, either personally or by a Solicitor, an appearance in London.

If a Defendant keeps out of the way, an Order can usually be obtained for substituted service by post or advertisement.

Judgment in Default—If a Defendant does not appear, Judgment in default can be entered for the amount sued for and a fixed sum allowed for costs.

If the claim is for damages, Judgment in default can be signed, and the Action can be continued for the assessment of the damages.

Service Out of the Jurisdiction—Leave to serve a Writ out of the jurisdiction is obtained on an Affidavit, shewing that the cause of action falls within the rule permitting such service. The order made fixes the time for appearance.

A Defendant so served can enter an appearance under protest, and move to set aside the service if he desires to dispute the question of jurisdiction.

Recovery of Debts—Writs to recover debts are issued out of the King's Bench Division (known as the Common Law Division), but it is unusual to sue in the High Court for a debt of less than £20, as if less than that sum is recovered no costs are allowed.

If the claim is endorsed on the Writ in a special form, the Plaintiff can apply for Summary Judgment. The application is supported by an Affidavit verifying the cause of Action.

Affidavits sworn abroad should be made before the British Consul.

The application is heard by a Master in Chambers who directs Judgment, unless the Defendant satisfies him by Affidavit that he has grounds for defence or a good counterclaim.

Appeals can be made within 4 days to the Judge in Chambers.

A Master or Judge can give a Defendant unconditional leave to defend or subject to terms (e.g. payment of the whole or part of the amount into Court, or satisfactory security), or direct a summary trial without pleadings by a Judge without a Jury.

Security for Costs—A Plaintiff residing out of England must on the application of the Defendant give security for costs unless the Plaintiff has property within the jurisdiction.

The amount fixed is usually £10 pending the application for Judgment where the particulars of the claim being a liquidated demand is endorsed specially on the Writ.

The amount can be paid into Court or secured by an approved Bond.

In cases where leave to defend is given or where the claim is for damages, the Master fixes the security at such sum as he thinks fit.

Injunctions, Receivers, &c.—After appearance, applications can be made for Injunctions, Receivers or other immediate remedy. In urgent cases the Judge gives leave to serve Notice of Motion to the Court with the Writ, or even if considered necessary, makes the Order ex parte.

Pleadings—The Master on the Plaintiffs application decides if a formal Statement of Claim is to be delivered, and the time for the delivery of the Defence.

A Set-off and Counterclaim can be pleaded by way of Defence.

If a Defence is not delivered, Judgment in default can be taken.

A Defence may in special cases be followed by a Reply (if allowed).

Discovery—Either party can be required to make an Affidavit scheduling the documents that have been or are in his possession relating to the matter in dispute. All documents other than those that are privileged (e.g. letters from the litigant's own Solicitor, Counsel's opinions, &c.) must be produced.

Interrogatories—Either party may be compelled to answer material questions on oath.

Notice of Trial—The Plaintiff after Defence can enter the case for trial, and in his default the Defendant can do so. It takes its position in one of the Lists to be tried by a Judge, or with or without a Special or Common Jury as previously directed by the Master.

Evidence—The Lists are searched from time to time. The evidence to be given has to be carefully considered and is usually advised upon by Counsel.

Witnesses served with subpoenas to attend are entitled to have their conduct money paid. The subpoenas may also state what documents have to be produced.

Commissions—Where witnesses reside out of the jurisdiction, the Court can direct the taking evidence on Commission, and can depute persons residing abroad to take the evidence.

Trial—Chancery, Probate, Divorce, and a large proportion of other cases are tried in London. The Common Law Judges go "Circuit" for the trial in certain towns in England of local cases.

In the absence of a Defendant, the Court on the application of Plaintiff's Counsel gives Judgment for the Plaintiff, but some proof of the Plaintiff's claim may be required.

A Jury consists of twelve persons. Special Jurymen composed of householders occupying houses of a certain yearly value, are paid One Guinea (£1 1s.) each, and common Jurymen 1s.

Commercial Cases—After a Defendant has appeared, a Plaintiff can in a proper case apply for a case to be entered in the Commercial List. These cases are treated as urgent; their final hearing are expedited, and the interlocutory proceedings are simple and short. When possible, we always have our cases placed in the Commercial List.

Costs—The costs incurred on both sides are borne by the litigant against whom judgment is given, subject to a discretionary power on the part of the presiding Judge, but they almost invariably follow the issue of the case.

Costs are subject to taxation by Taxing Masters. As against an unsuccessful litigant, they are taxed as between "Party and Party." In special cases where the Judge so orders (rarely), they are allowed on a higher scale as between "Solicitor and Client," these being the costs reasonably chargeable by a Solicitor against his own Client.

On taxation, the due payment of all disbursements (e.g. fees paid to Counsel and Witnesses) must be proved.

The successful litigant is liable to his Solicitor for the difference between the "Party and Party" costs received from the other side and "Solicitor and Client" costs.

Sittings and Vacations—The legal year is divided into four Terms.

Hilary—11th January to Wednesday preceding Good Friday.

Easter—2nd Tuesday after Easter to Thursday preceding Whit Monday.

Trinity—2nd Tuesday after Whit Monday to 31st July.

Michaelmas—12th October to 21st December.

The intervals are the Vacations. The Vacation between "Trinity" and "Michaelmas" is known as the "Long Vacation."

Writs can be issued, and urgent matters including applications for Summary Judgment are dealt with by Judges and Masters who sit in vacations.

Judgments—A Judgment carries interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum and continues enforceable for twelve years.

A Judgment can be enforced in various ways, such as:

An execution against the Defendant's personal effects;

Attaching money at a Bank or due from any third person;

A Charge on Bonds or Shares; A Charge on real estate;

Proceedings in Bankruptcy.

Subject to certain formalities the Judgment can be extended to other countries, and made available there. Foreign Judgments can be sued on and enforced here.

Executions—If the Sheriff sells under an execution he holds the proceeds for 14 days. In the event of the Debtor's bankruptcy within that time, the Bankruptcy Trustee becomes entitled to the money.

If a claim is made by a third party to the goods seized (e.g. by the holder of a Bill of Sale or by the Trustees of a Marriage Settlement), the Creditor, if he admits the claim, can withdraw the Sheriff.

If the claim is not withdrawn or admitted the Sheriff interpleads. The matter is then dealt with by a Master who can bar the claim or direct a trial between the Creditor and the Claimant.

COUNTY COURTS.

Claims Under £20—County Courts, are Local Courts held in London, and in various towns in the Kingdom. Claims under £20 are sued for in County Courts; if sued for in the High Court costs are not allowed.

The proceedings are initiated by a Summons fixing the date of trial. The Summons is served by being left at the Defendant's residence.

In certain cases a Default Summons can be issued on an Affidavit verifying the claim. This Summons must be served personally. If the Defendant returns the notice of intention to defend attached to the Summons, the case is entered for trial, otherwise the Plaintiff can sign Judgment. He is entitled to Judgment without evidence if the Defendant does not appear on the trial.

A Plaintiff residing out of the jurisdiction has, as in the High Court, to give security for costs (see paragraph 30-3). There is no procedure as in the High Court for obtaining Summary Judgment except the claim is on a Bill of Exchange.

On the trial day the Plaintiff must prove his case by first hand evidence, even if the Defendant does not appear.

The fees are high. The Plaintiff fee is 5 per cent. and the trial fee 10 per cent. of the amount claimed. The costs allowed are nominal.

In some cases it may answer a Plaintiff's purpose in order to obtain Summary Judgment to issue a Writ in the High Court where the amount is under £20 although no costs can be recovered.

County Court procedure is too troublesome and expensive to be of appreciable value to Plaintiffs residing out of the jurisdiction. Recourse to that Court can therefore only be advised in very exceptional cases.

Wills—Wills are proved in the Probate Registry. In cases where relatives or others interested desire to know before Probate the contents of a Will, or wish to oppose its proof, or to consider the position, they can stay the issue of Probate by entering a Caveat through a Solicitor. Persons having claims that could or might be substantiated are thus placed in a better position for effecting satisfactory arrangements than would be the case after Probate has been granted.

In cases of intestacy, Letters of Administration are issued to husband, wife, next of kin or creditor, as the case may be. The issue can be stopped by Caveat.

In the absence of opposition, Probates or Letters of Administration issue without any judicial proceedings. A Probate or Administration so granted can, however, be questioned or recalled at any time.

After Probate the Will becomes public property, and any one can peruse it or obtain copies. The declared value of the estate, without any details, is also public after the grant of Probate or Administration.

Unclaimed Estates, &c.—The idea—apparently widely entertained—that there are many Estates in England which might be successfully claimed, has, little warrant in fact. Properties without ostensible owners are rarely to be found. Twelve years undisturbed possession often gives a title that can only be displaced on proof of fraud, or in the event of some disability such as infancy. In the latter case the twelve years commences to run with the determination of the disability.

In the case of properties let on lease the twelve years runs from the expiration of the Lease. Building Leases are usually granted for a term of ninety-nine years, and a title to property has at times been established as against the occupier (not unusually the Lessee), many years after the Freeholder's death.

There are, it is true, funds in Court that have in years gone by been paid in principally in connection with Administration Actions. The records of particular Actions can be seen by a Solicitor on furnishing proof that he is representing a bona fide applicant.

The unclaimed funds are invested in Consols, and in cases where the Dividends have not been claimed for ten years, the Stock is transferred to the Commissioners for the reduction of the National Debt. On proof of title, however, the funds will be re-transferred. No particulars of the transferred funds are published, and the burden of proof rests wholly on the claimant.

Banks and Companies do not publish any information with regard to unclaimed balances or Dividends.

Unless claimants can furnish some reasonable proof of ownership or kinship, it is, in our experience, very rare indeed for anything to come of these applications. It is not our practice to encourage money being spent in attempts to establish claims that are in nearly every case unsubstantial or incapable of being established.

Suggestions to Facilitate Collections—Give the full names and addresses of the Creditors, and if a Firm or an Unincorporated Company, the names and addresses of each of the partners. In the case of an Incorporated Company give its head address.

When forwarding claims, give all known information as to the names, addresses, and occupations of the Debtors.

In the case of women state (if known) whether single or married. If married, if possible, give the name and address of the husband.

If addresses are not known, give all possible information as to the debtor's profession or business, and of his family and relatives (if any) living in England.

Send any papers or correspondence that has passed, Debtor's letters admitting liability are particularly useful.

Give the shortest address for cabling purposes, or preferably register a cable address with the London correspondent.

The Kalamazoo - Loose Leaf Binder

Appeals to Every Business and Professional Man

THE "Kalamazoo" is the best expression of the loose leaf idea, as it is the only binder that will hold just as few or as many leaves as one requires to use, whether one hundred sheets or one thousand. It has no exposed metal parts to scratch the desk. It is lighter in weight, stronger and more durable than any other; and it will do everything that any other binder will do and do them better.

¶ There are thousands of "Kalamazoo" binders in use in Canada and every one giving the utmost satisfaction.

¶ Write for booklet "B" giving full description of the "Kalamazoo" binder.

A National Legal Clearing House

Long ago the legal profession has recognized the necessity of a Monthly Magazine of this character. The idea is that of a National publication—

To seek out those Lawyers and Judges who are held in high esteem in the profession, who have established their fame by accomplishing something out of the ordinary in legal procedure; men who have won difficult and complicated cases; who have evolved a new interpretation of an existing law; who have upset a long established precedent

To go thoroughly into the causes and effects and to give to the legal profession at large the benefits of their experiences. To interchange ideas of mutual benefits, to feature up the minute decisions, to keep the up-to-date lawyer in constant minute touch with everything that is new in the legal profession.

The Lawyers' Monthly is directed straight to the Lawyer who wants to practise his profession by intelligent, scientific, profit-producing methods and who views his own activities in their relation to the legal profession as a whole.

To publish the best to be obtained on any subject that is of interest to Lawyers. To limelight the greatest doings in the legal profession.

The Lawyers' Monthly is a National Legal Clearing House. It will tell you every month the actual experiences of Lawyers and of Judges in every state in the Union. Their methods of legal procedure, new systems of office records. It will feature everything that is new and good for both your legal practice and office work.

You cannot afford to miss a single issue of your magazine, "The Lawyers' Monthly." Send in your subscription to-day to

BURROUGHS & COMPANY

LIMITED

CALGARY, ALBERTA

The only Law Publishers in Western Canada

OUR WESTERN WEEKLY REPORTS are recognized as the most complete, most prompt, best edited Law Reports in Canada. No other reports are of such practical value to the Western lawyer. All cases decided in Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba and Saskatchewan are reported a few days after judgment is delivered. All cases appealed from these jurisdictions to the Supreme Court of Canada or the Privy Council are first reported in the W.W.R. W.W.R. has more subscribers than any other series of Canadian reports, because our subscribers get BETTER VALUE for the money expended.

BURROUGHS' CITATION BUREAU of current cases is the only digest in the world which is always complete up to the day your case is argued. If you are not familiar with it, a line will bring full information. It is worth while.

The only text books for Western lawyers yet issued are :
Thom—Canadian-Torrens System, Price, $15.
and Douglas & Rorie—B.C. Company Law, Price
$6.50 (cloth), $7.50 (leather). Both are published by us.

Remember we can supply any law book published. Our prices are lowest and our service promptest.

Facts About a Wonder City

Vancouver is the most rapidly growing city in the British Empire to-day. In twenty-six years Vancouver has risen from the ashes of a village fire to a commanding position among the seaports of the world. In 1887 the total assessable property was valued at $2,639,077, and in 25 years that sum has increased to $192,501,775.

Vancouver took fourth place among North American cities in building returns for the month of October, 1912, Chicago ranking first with $8,745,600; New York second with $8,538,715; Philadelphia third with $3,644,225, and Vancouver a close contestant for third place with $3,597,165. Vancouver's building permits for 1911 totalled $17,652,642 and for the first eleven months of 1912 the total was $17,858,067.

Ten Magic Years

The following figures illustrate the remarkable development of Vancouver during the past decade:

	1902	1906	1910	1912
Bank Clearings	$54,000,000	$132,000,000	$445,000,000	$650,000,000.00

Q Lawyers who interest themselves in Commercial Collections are invited to apply for territory.

Q A new issue of the C.B.A. will appear in March next; we want to have every centre represented by a lawyer who likes commercial collections, and who will give adequate attention to business coming over this list.

Q Our subscribers are the manufacturers and wholesalers; they are installing our "Service" in ever increasing numbers.

Q The "Service" consists of certain forms, which are supplied to subscribers; they are used in the collecting of outstanding and over-due accounts. Our "Draft form" is now being used in thousands; they go through the Banks and are automatically handed by the Bank to our local Bonded Attorney, if unpaid. Our Attorneys are all bonded by us to our subscribers through the Dominion of Canada Guarantee & Accident Ins. Co.; it is therefore necessary to supply references when applying for territory.
